Culebra Cut, According to ReportsWood Held in Vent for Three

Completely Charred

NEW YORK, March 13.—The statement that a sleeping volcano, dormant for many centuries, is threatening the safety of the Panama Canal, is made in special reports from Colon published here today. The volcano is said to underlie the Culebra Cut and it is stated that "the report of the division engineer at Culebra is rather pessimistic."

The fear of volcanic trouble had its origin in the fact that clouds of steam and blue smoke have been rising from newly turned ground. Every ditch-hole in the affected area is tested with a thermometer before dynamite is put in, to prevent a premature explosion.

The division engineer's report of the phenomenon, is in part as follows:

HEAT IS GREAT.
"Three weeks ago I noticed that the locality described, which consisted of a stratified sedimentary rock, among which there appeared some lignite of a low grade, was sending up a thick cloud of white steam or vapor. I examined the spot and found that the entire mass was heated to a considerable temperature."

"Steam was escaping from numerous small openings and from four principal vents. The sides of two of the vents were encrusted with white and yellow powdery material, the yellow appearing to be sulphur."

"Within the past five days there has been quite a change in two important characteristics. The temperature has increased and a pale blue smoke, instead of steam, is now emerging from the vents."

"To give an idea of the temperature of the larger vent I took a piece of white pine and held it for three minutes in the mouth of the largest vent and it was completely charred."

Numerous slides have retarded the progress in the work of the Culebra cut, which is one of the most stupendous undertakings in the canal. On-forever obstacles have prevented the laborers from fulfilling their contracts upon set dates and for months they worked to remove the burden. In the Culebra cut 16,000,000 cubic yards have been excavated, but 24,000,000 yards are yet to be taken out. The slides have added almost 5,000,000 yards to this task. It has caused delay in the original plans and it is now an uncertainty as to the time for the completion of the Culebra.

POMONA, March 13.—A flock of robin numbering between 400 and 500, flew into Pomona from the north yesterday and have apparently settled for the spring in the barn of A. C. Hargis. The birds appear to be unafraid of strangers and are making nests in and about the barn. Old residents say that but one or two red-breasts have been seen in Pomona valley during the last ten years and they cannot explain the presence of the flock.

FRIENDLY SUIT IS
FILED BY MRS. DARGIE

Mrs. Emlina Feralta Dargie has commenced a suit in the Superior Court against John F. Connors, M. C. Chapman and J. Clem Arnold, executors of the estate of W. E. Dargie, deceased, to quiet title to a ranch in Santa Barbara county. Mrs. Dargie inherited this property from her parents' estate and it is her separate property. She wants the title cleared. The suit is a friendly one. A. A. Moore and Stanley Moore are attorneys for Mrs. Dargie.

HOLDS MASS

Who "Ragged" Are Censured

An indignation meeting this afternoon, at which the student body censured the pupils of the Fremont High School, who indulged in "ragging" during their "self government day" last week, was the aftermath of the trouble that came to the school yesterday as the result of the dancing in the study hall.

The students have started a petition asking Principal F. S. Rosseter to allow them a chance to redeem themselves at another "self government day," but whether this will be allowed is not known. Those who are taking a prominent part in the movement to "redeem the students" are Ray Ogden, of the senior class, and Miss Jane Kilgore and William Young, vice-president of the student body, who acted as assistant principal on the day the trouble occurred.

Fifteen anxious students are today wondering when the final action of the principal will be in regard to their cases, and while the matter will not be taken up with the board of education, and no expulsions or suspensions will take place, Rosseter declares that punishment must be meted out. The "Gritzy Bear" during a study period caused all the trouble, and the student acting as principal during the day of self government was one of those to fall from grace. The "ragging" is not so reprehensible in the eyes of the faculty as the violating of the confidence reposed in them, and the consequent failure of the honor system experiment. The student body, almost as a whole, condemns the action of the dancers, stating that it casts odium on the entire school.

Francisco Officials

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—Superior Judge Dunne, using all the power at his command and after an investigation today lasting until noon, declared war on the bail bond business conducted for years in this city and has directed an inquiry toward McDonough brothers, alleged to be the chief brokers handling the trade. The case under consideration was that of Thomas Daley, arrested with $89.30 in his pocket, only a few days after he had been released from San Quentin, and charged with vagrancy. The court held that his arrest was an outrage, admitted him to probation and ordered his counsel, Attorney George Rose, to return all the money the prisoner had given him, amounting to $93.

"No man should have his liberty taken away from him under such circumstances," declared the court. "There are burglaries, being committed all over town. There are robberies every day. Where is the chief of police? Where are the police commissioners? You might as well kill a man outright as scare him to death by rushing him along the street in charge of three policemen as is indicated in this instance. This is a new building, dedicated to justice. We cannot engage in better work than in endeavoring to stamp out this sort of thing. I want copies of this record sent to the grand jury, the chief of police and the police commissioners. I consider you, Mr. Rose, only like a messenger boy for somebody. I am going behind and beyond you. I am going to investigate this case and take further steps at a future time."

DALEY IS WITNESS.
Daley, himself, was the first witness. He told of giving Attorney Rose the $89.30 and of the lawyer's returning him a few dollars on his plea that he was broke before he had acquired the money. Rose himself explained that the charge was for bail and for a fee from Daley and his two companions, Peter McGivney and Gustave H. Flahie. He expressed a willingness to return Daley's money to him and the court ordered him to do so at once. Assistant District Attorney Maxwell McNutt then revealed some of the inner workings of the system of bail-bond business by reading two anonymous letters heaped on the structural steel skeleton of the latter said, "The city prison is

WORK TO BE RESUMED
ON OAKLAND CITY HALLCommissioner Anderson Says He Stopped
Construction to Prevent Strike

Owing to differences between contractors, sub-contractors and workmen on the new City Hall, work on the structure was stopped by Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson a week ago and operations have been suspended pending a settlement of the difficulties. Anderson announced today that he had stopped the work to obviate the possibility of a strike being called on the building, as this might be averted by conferences while the work was not in progress, but might come to a head if an attempt was made by some of the contractors to continue work. Work will be resumed on the structure tomorrow morning and the rataplan of the riveting machine will again be heard on the structural steel skeleton of the giant edifice. A conference was held this morning in the office of Mayor Frank K. Mott, at which the various

Be Held Today

BERLIN, March 13.—The coal miners' strike in the great German coal fields of Westphalia has taken a serious turn, and already has resulted in a fatal conflict between the police and the striking miners, in the district of Herne. At the village of Herne, five miles from Bochum, a revolver shot at a detachment of police marching toward the mine which they had been ordered to protect. The police returned the fire and one of the strikers was killed. At Hainborn, fighting occurred between the strikers and the police yesterday. Large reinforcements of the police have arrived, so that the calling out of the militia, which has been under contemplation, has been deferred. During the night, the strikers completely bombarded the police, throwing bottles, and stones from the upper windows of houses as they passed along the streets accusing non-union miners.

BARRICADE STORES.
A body of strikers demolished a large number of gas lamps in the town, and many of the merchants were forced to barricade their stores. Order has been restored in the town today.

The mine owners have provided covered wagons in which the non-striker whose number is few are escorted under police protection and from the pits. A considerable number of arrests have been made. The feeling among the men who have struck is increasing in intensity, owing to the rigid measures of the authorities.

From several places come reports of serious disturbances and miners who remain at work have to be strongly protected.

SETTLEMENT NEAR.
NEW YORK, March 13.—With conferences today in New York and London steps may be taken which will lead towards adjustments of the world-wide situation, which finds a million coal miners on strike in Great Britain and a threatened strike of tens of thousands of hard and soft coal miners in the United States.

Possibility of strike in this country already has made itself felt in prices of $1 a ton paid on anthracite.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—President Taft pointed out to members of the foreign relations committee and the Texas Congressional delegation at a conference today that the neutrality laws of the United States were not specific enough and is reported to have said that unless Congress enacts new measures it would be difficult to preserve peace with Mexico.

The president appealed to his callers to help him preserve peace by preventing neutrality law violations and suggested that some steps be taken at once for the enactment of more adequate measures.

The conference was a result of the appeal of president Madero that the United States put into effect a stricter neutrality in Texas. After the conference the Senate committee on foreign relations held a meeting and framed a joint resolution which would prohibit the shipment of arms from the United States to any state on the American continent which is in a condition of disorder.

HEAVY PENALTIES.
The resolution would impose heavy penalties, the intention being to make it immediately applicable to the Mexican situation.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 13.—Express Messenger David A. Truesdale prevented the robbery of a Southern Pacific train near Sanderson today when he killed two highwaymen who had held up the train.

The robbers boarded the train, No. 9 westbound, a few miles east of Sanderson. The mail and express cars and the locomotive were detached. Then the engineer, covered by the bandits' revolvers, was compelled to run the coaches ahead. One of the robbers took Truesdale back to the train and kept him under guard, while the other covered the crew ahead and started to rifle the safe and express boxes.

Truesdale is said to have employed the ruse of signalling to an imaginary person back of his captor. When the robber turned Truesdale grasped a mallet and before the highwayman could shoot, dashed out his brains.

Then arming himself with the dead robber's revolver, Truesdale waited for the return of the other bandit, after he had rifled the express boxes. Stepping from cover Truesdale killed him.

All of the stolen property was recovered and the train proceeded. Truesdale is a young man, recently promoted to the express run. He lives in San Antonio.

EL PASO, March 13.—When Southern Pacific Passenger Train No. 9 reached Sanderson, Sheriff Allen was informed of the holdup and immediately started a search for a third man believed to have been a member of the gang. The suspected bandit boarded the train at Dryden, and is thought to have disappeared in the excitement. Both bandits were Americans.

A book found in possession of one of the dead men contained names of a number of persons in Oklahoma

INDIANS SEEK TO DRIVE OUT EVIL SPIRIT

Specimen Collector Believed to Be Shade of Departed Man.

Captain James Bartlett Tells Story of Attack by Redmen.

SAN BERNARDINO, March 13.—With his face and body badly cut and bruised and telling a story of having been attacked by Colorado River Indians who thought he was an evil spirit, Captain James Bartlett, who for years has traversed the desert collecting specimens for the Smithsonian Institution, arrived here today.

"When I appeared in their village," said Captain Bartlett, "the Indians were terror-stricken. They seized me and threw me into a hut about which they placed a guard. Their warriors worked themselves into a frenzy with a religious dance which, I supposed, was expected to have an exorcising effect upon me.

"I learned that they thought I was the ghost of another Captain Bartlett, a rifle expert formerly connected with a power company who died several months ago in Los Angeles. It seemed that while men had read in the papers of the rifle expert's death and thinking it was I, had told the Indians I was dead.

"When night came the guard about my hut relaxed its vigilance, the warriors rested from their religious dance and I managed to creep out of my prison and escape. Reaching white men whom I knew, I told them to see the Indians and correct their mistaken belief about my death so that if my work should take me again into their district, they would not again molest me."

SETTLEMENT NEAR IN COAL STRIKE

Conferences Will Be Held in New York and London Today.

Shipments from the bituminous regions to the seaboard are delayed by bad weather and a car shortage.

President John P. White of the United Mine Workers of America and a committee of hard coal miners were prepared to join this afternoon with a committee of operators who will reply officially to the demands for higher wages and other concessions presented two weeks ago. The operators already have announced that the demands would be refused.

CONFERENCE RESUMED.

LONDON, March 13.—A conference between the British coal mine owners and the United Mine Workers of America, under the auspices of several members of the cabinet and presided over by Premier Asquith, was resumed this morning at the foreign office and satisfactory progress is said to have been made.

No details of the proceedings have been made public, but the premier at noon expressed his gratification at the course the negotiations were taking. The distress that has been caused throughout England, Scotland and Wales by the strike is becoming acute, more particularly in Wales, in that country practically the whole life of the people depends upon output of the coal mines.

In the city of Cardiff alone, the chief constable reports 700 families are in immediate need of relief and in all the mining towns now that the strike pay of the miners has been cut down by the mine owners, there will be need of assistance unless a settlement of the dispute is reached quickly.

The men on the railroads and those connected with other industries are being dispatched daily by hundreds. The miners' federation adopted today the recommendation of the executive committee which was made last night, that the federation agree to Premier Asquith's plan for a joint conference in the various districts for the settlement of the minimum wage proposals on the understanding that none of the districts would resume work until a national settlement is effected.

ON VERGE OF FAMINE.

CHICAGO, March 13.—Big eastern coal companies and local dealers are agreed that Chicago is on the verge of a coal famine. Opinions differ as to the gravity of the situation.

It is said that practically all of the anthracite coal mined in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Tennessee, West Virginia and Kentucky has been consumed.

April weather conditions and a threatened strike furnish additional apprehension on the part of dealers. It is said, too, that the great strike in England is adding to the alarm.

High School "Raggers" Want Another Self-Government Day.

The carpet in connection with the affair are Miss Reba Hoff, Miss Dorothy Lowell, Miss Adelaide Keller, Miss Ethel Perkins, Miss Roberta Green, Miss Vera Moffatt, Miss Wieban, Clifford Cole, Murrell, Elmer Wieban, Clifford Cole, Charles Fern, Douglas Cohen, Anso Weeks and Benjamin Manning. There were others, it is said.

BEGAN AT NOON.

The dancing started during the noon hour. This has always been permitted in the school, but Principal Rosseter has always reserved the pastime with a vigilant eye, lest a suspicion of "ragging" should creep in. On this day there was no supervision, and soon the "Bunny Hug," the "Grizzly Bear" and other dances, not so innocuous as the usual type, crept in. When the noon hour was over the students were loath to give up the sport, and in the first study period the fun began again, when Miss Bessie Allen seated herself at the piano and played a lively ragtime selection. Feet began to twinkle, and soon a number were on the floor swaying in wild abandon to the music Elmer Wieban, acting principal, and Clifford Cole, another officer of the day, were prominent among the dancers.

"We just had to when the music began," said Cole. "We knew it was wrong, but could not help it." The dancing kept up for about half an hour before the opponents of the terpsichorean became fatigued. The affair came to the ears of Rosseter that night. The rumor about the school is that Lucy Catlin and Lulu Wells, two girls who for some reason were excluded from the dance, told the principal. He states that a number of students called at his home that night after school, and that he had the pupils on the carpet the next day. Miss Ruth Slavan, one of the girls accused of participating in the dance, has been absolved of blame.

"I was not in the room at the time," said she. Miss Slavan was teaching a class while the dancing went on.

STUDENTS PROMINENT.

The students in trouble are all prominent in the affairs of the school, and almost all taught classes in the morning, being appointed to take the place of the teachers for the day. During the morning several visitors were present, including William R. George, founder of the Junior Republic, and Miss Annie Florence Brown. Discipline was exemplary.

"It is a deplorable affair," said Ray O'Brien, one of the leaders in the movement to get another chance at a self-government day. "A few thoughtless pupils have cast censure on the school, despite the efforts of the students as a whole to make the day a success."

The boys, as a rule, while ashamed of the affair, are bitter against the pupils whom they believe gave the information to Rosseter, and making the main target of their anger. Several of the boys have been withdrawn from their classes by their parents, at the suggestion of Principal Rosseter, as a punishment for their part in the affair and to prevent their return.

Without Blemish for 24 Years, Railway Clerk Is Forced to Open Letters.

LOUISVILLE, March 13.—After serving 24 years in the railway mail service, without a blemish on his record, Arch B. Terrell, 53 years old, confessed to secret service officers in the jail here today that he had stolen a total of $18 from registered letters to buy Christmas presents and medicine for his son, who has tuberculosis.

Terrell was arrested yesterday at Bloomfield, Ky., where he lives and admitted his guilt. He told the officers that his son's illness put him to great expense. Then his daughter became seriously ill and he was compelled to tell the children they would receive no Christmas presents. They cried and he could not bear it.

BERLIN, March 13.—A collision occurred today between two aeroplanes flying around the aerodrome at Johannisthal, a machine driven by Schade, who was carrying a passenger, and another driven by Rettinger. The 46 defendants pleaded not guilty yesterday.

OROZCO TO BE FORCED TO FIGHT

Government Will Not Wait for Rebel Leader's Advance to Torreón.

Senator Culberson, heading the Texas delegation attended the conference. The Senate later unanimously adopted the Root resolution. Senator Root said there were thousands of Americans who were fleeing from their homes and properties because imperilled by arms and ammunition sent across the border from the United States.

FIRE ON SCOUTS.

CHIHUAHUA, Mexico, March 13.—The first brush between rebels and Federals at Santa Rosa occurred last evening. A scouting party drew the first of an outpost of the little besieged garrison. The shots were returned, but the exchange was slight and resulted in no damage.

An unconfirmed rumor reaching here says that government forces, either those of Villa or those that crossed the line at Ojinaga, will cut the railroad north of here within the next twenty-four hours. The report is that the military zone is regarded as doubtful. The strengthening of the garrison at Torreón and the apparent loyalty of General Geronimo Trevino, commander of the military zone, with headquarters at Monterrey, are taken as indications that the rebels will take the offensive.

All firearms and other munitions of war in Chihuahua must be surrendered to the rebels within three days or owners will be considered "enemies of the revolution" and tried before a court-martial, according to a decree published by General Pascual Orozco. Import duties have been reduced 50 per cent by Orozco, the decree advising the public that the new rates will be in effect from March 15. Today it refers to all foreign goods, except intoxicating liquors, and becomes effective immediately, a similar reduction being made in the stamp tax. Orozco and his advisers expect much prestige to be given the revolutionary cause by the presence in Washington of the two commanders, who left here for the American capital today.

THREATS TO MEXICO.

MEXICO CITY, March 13.—Members of the European diplomatic corps here see in the news of the advance through Juarez, the greatest menace to Mexico. One of the diplomats accredited to Mexico declared today that introduction of arms is a menace not because of the present rebellion, but because the introduction of arms is bound to spread through the republic, and its effects will be felt for years.

All the foreign diplomats here are alarmed at this prospect, he spokesmen declared, because the arms are arising from this source is as great to other foreigners as to citizens of the United States.

HUNGER IS WEAPON.

CHIHUAHUA, Mex., March 13.—Hunger and not bullets will win Torreón unless the government troops assume the offensive, say rebel leaders. On the theory that it is better to sacrifice a limb than to starve, the rebels are planning the overthrow of Madero by means of a siege.

Railroads enter the city from the south, east, west and north, but for some weeks there has been no communication as the result of bridge destruction and the people of Torreón already have experienced a scarcity of foodstuffs. The arrival of federals from the south probably has afforded some relief but revolutionary leaders are planning to make matters worse by cutting off every road entering the city, thus bringing starvation and population to a state where surrender will be the natural and preferable solution.

TO GUARD APPROACHES.

It is planned to mobilize the revolutionary army from the north along the line near Bernalillo, a few kilometers north of Torreón, while similar forces already appearing in that district will guard the approaches from east, west and south. The road from the south connecting with the capital can be guarded better, they believe, by a force of men holding Picardias, a short distance from Torreón, where there is a bridge of more than ordinary length.

Counting on the hands of rebels operating in the State of Coahuila and Durango, the officers of the revolutionary army believe they can surround Torreón with a force of 8000 or 10,000.

Should the garrison succeed in holding out until some time in April, another phase of the situation, it is believed, may develop in the national congress, which convenes on the second of that month. The revolutionary officers believe it not unlikely that by that time the people as a whole will be clamoring for the end of the siege, that congress will join in the demand to have Madero relinquish his position.

DEMAND RESIGNATION.

CHIHUAHUA, March 13.—The immediate resignation of President Madero and the removal of his cabinet are demanded in a bill which was presented today before the permanent commission of the State Legislature. The deputies presenting the measure ask that a special session of the legislature be called to adopt it, thus placing the state in the position of formally repudiating as soon as the necessary formalities can be complied with.

The deputies favoring the measure appeal to the patriotism of the President and vice-President, saying that only by resigning immediately can they prevent the shedding of blood. General Antonio Rojas with the one hundred men he brought here from Juarez, left on a special train this morning for Juarez, where he will resume command of the station. The day will be spent at Sauz, where stock will be taken aboard.

Fears Court Will Effect Reconciliation by Absent Treatment

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—Following the Superior Judge Graham, the renowned member of broken hearts, was able to effect reconciliations by absent treatment, and fearing the worst, Mrs. Harry Donaldson made an appeal to him in open court today.

Mrs. Donaldson had read of the jurist's tendency to re-unite married pairs. She had been divorced by him in 1907, but had since reconciled and had a child. She visited the courtroom today and requested that she be not reconciled in view of husband No. 2 and the little one.

HOLD TURNER AND MOTT RESPONSIBLE

Socialists and Laborites May Abandon Plan to Recall Entire Administration.

Harmonious action by the Socialists and labor unions in the recall projected against the present city administration is persuaded in informal information given out today to the effect that the Socialists will probably abandon their plan of recalling the entire administration and will join with the laborites in concentrating against Mayor Mott and Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Fred C. Turner as the individuals directly responsible for the street riots of the night of March 2.

Investigation by the labor unions through their representatives developed the fact that Commissioners W. J. Baccus, Harry Anderson and John Forrest had nothing to do with the action of the police in suppressing the street speakers and in entering homes to halt the labor union leaders, were, therefore, in favor of concentrating on those responsible in the street riot matter, and it is admitted today that the Socialists will join with them in this plan of campaign, and will not attack the other commissioners with a recall.

The question of recalling the members of the school board is still under consideration by the Socialists, however, as they are inclined to support Miss Annie Florence Brown in the fight she has been making single-handed, they say, against her confederates. This will be decided Sunday, when the committee of 58 delegates of the Socialist party in Oakland hold their session to hear the report of the special committee appointed to draft the statement of intention to recall.

MAY BE THREE-CORNERED.

The possibility of a three-cornered fight for the mayoralty is being talked of on the street corners, as there is great likelihood that John L. Dwyer, mayor of Oakland, will get into the fight if a recall is invoked. The Socialists and labor men will join in putting a candidate in the field, and it is possible that Dwyer's friends will decide to run him as an independent candidate. This will have the effect of splitting the anti-Mott vote of the laborites and Socialists is a question that is agitating the advocates of the recall.

The decision of the Socialists, which has been informally canvassed among the members of the party, and has found favorable reception to confine the recall to the officials who have directly to do with the exercise of the police power, has come as a result of the arguments made by a portion of the party to the effect that the present city administration has been guilty of no transgressions of great moment, and that it would be an action in some sense discreditable to the party to take advantage of the present situation merely to make an issue against them.

The Socialists declare that the right of free speech was abrogated in the invasion of Hamilton Hall, and they declare that people were clubbed in the streets without provocation when it would have been possible to deal with the Industrial Workers of the World without causing a riot.

"We feel that the humblest laboring man in this city shall not be mistreated in the streets merely because he is not legally formidable," said H. C. Tucker, the blind editor of the Socialist paper. "That an infringement of the rights of the people that we as a party representing the working class cannot tolerate."

Patrolmen were kept moving last night to prevent a threatened gathering of the Industrial Workers of the World, which the police stated that an attempt to hold a street meeting at Eleventh and Broadway would be made by the I. W. W. speakers. A detail of police was rushed to the scene, but nobody came to the meeting. About half an hour later another message was sent to the police that the meeting would be held at Ninth and Broadway. Later they were again rushed back again to Eleventh and Broadway. No disturbance occurred.

H. C. Capwell Company has issued invitations to representatives of the city and county government, of commercial establishments and of the press to be its guests on a tour of inspection of the new store on Alameda street next Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The guests will be personally conducted over the entire new and handsome establishment previous to its opening to the public on Saturday afternoon.

Released From Jail to See Dying Baby

STOCKTON, March 13.—G. Plaza, proprietor of Lot's hotel, who is serving a six months' sentence in the county jail for receiving stolen property, was released yesterday in order that he might go to the bedside of his dying baby. He reached home some few hours before the child died last night and was returned to his cell. He begged Sheriff Riecks for permission to attend the funeral of the child and the request was granted.

ATTORNEY TO TELL OF FISH COMBINE CASES

Assistant District Attorney James F. Brannan of San Francisco is expected before the members of the Merchants' Exchange on Thursday evening, March 14, on the alleged fish combine on the Pacific Coast. The Exchange has been making an investigation of Oakland conditions and has been advised of the fact that Brannan was instrumental in securing a number of convictions within the past year in San Francisco in the cases there.

OIL STEAMER IS A TOTAL LOSS

GAUVIOTA, Cal., March 13.—The Associated Oil Company's tanker Rosecrans, wrecked on the rocks at Alcatraz, will be a total loss. Two lives were lost, the victims being William Walman, ship carpenter, and Arnold Muthberg, quartermaster.

The tanker Falls of Clyde of the same company, which was in danger during the storm, was towed to safety.

and Kansas. These were telegraphed to the authorities in those states. CONFRONTED BY BANDITS.

At Dryden, where the robbers boarded the engine, they told Engineer Grosh to keep moving until he came to about ten miles from Dryden. There Conductor Erkel sent a negro porter forward to see what was the matter, but the porter did not return and the conductor himself went forward only to be confronted by three in the robbers' hands. He ran out of range. The engineer was brought back to the mail car and Messenger Trousdale and Mail Clerk Banks were forced to alight and then the bandits made the entire crew help out the train and move the engine, mail and express cars forward. The express messenger and mail clerk meantime rifled their respective cars under threats of instant death.

Conductor Erkel, hearing a freight coming, went back and stopped it. He put up the telephone always carried on trains and summoned officers from Sanderson. By this time the robbers had driven the passenger train half a mile westward and stopped around a curve.

BRANDS BANDIT.

It was here that Trousdale turned around and seemed to be signaling to a person behind his captor. For an instant the bandit took his eyes off Trousdale. The next instant he was dead. Trousdale had seized the big eye mallet in the car and brained the bandit striking him a crushing blow on the side of the head.

The messenger caught up the robber, rolled him over and crouched on the wall of the car waiting for the attack he knew would come. Growing uneasy, the other bandit jumped from the cab and ran back. Trousdale fired as he dashed into the cab. One shot was enough. The bandit was dead. Trousdale had seized the big eye mallet in the car and brained the bandit striking him a crushing blow on the side of the head.

BANK EMBEZZLER GIVES HIMSELF UP

Earl Standard Is Said to Have Confessed Crime to Officials.

POMONA, Cal., March 13.—Earl Standard, formerly bookkeeper of the American National Bank of Pomona, by which institution he was charged of having absconded with nearly $150,000, surrendered himself to officers of this city at Inyo-Kern, California, last night and is in jail here today.

Young Standard, for whom scores of detectives have been searching for several weeks, communicated with officers of the American National Bank of Pomona early yesterday afternoon and said if they would send an automobile to Inyo-Kern he would return to this city.

Captain Brady, an official of the bank went with the officers, who were sent to Inyo-Kern, and Standard was taken to the city. There it was stated today Standard made a full statement and turned over to representatives of the bank a large amount of money and securities. Then the young man was taken to a prison where he was held in secret, no information regarding his surrender being allowed to leak out until this afternoon.

SHOWERS GENERAL OVER CALIFORNIA

STOCKTON, March 13.—There were general showers in this vicinity yesterday and last night. For the last 36 hours the precipitation has totaled over an inch, while the rainfall for the month is 1.19 inches, making a total of 5.71 inches for the season. Indications are that there will be heavy showers today. Sufficient rain has fallen to insure big crops throughout the county.

9.03 INCHES IN SOUTH.

LOS ANGELES, March 13.—In the last twenty-four hours 1.82 inches of rain fell in Los Angeles, making the total for the season 9.03 inches. The forecast today was for cloudy, unsettled weather, with occasional showers.

SNOW IN MOUNTAINS.

SAN DIEGO, March 13.—Snow covers the tops of the mountains north and east of San Diego, from Palomar to the Mexican line and beyond. The storm of last night left an average of an inch and a half of rain at all inland points and 72 of an inch in San Diego, making 6.83 inches here for the season. The forecast is for showers today. The wind is moderate.

Idle Men Will Go Back to Work

Wage Schedule Offered by Lawrence Mills to Be Accepted.

LAWRENCE, Mass., March 13.—The end of the textile strike which began January 12, was thought to have been reached today. The general strike committee voted to recommend to the idle operatives of the American Woolen Company's four mills that the wage schedule offered by the corporation be accepted.

Paralyzed Man at Side of Dead Wife 3 Days

POMEROY, O., March 13.—Neighbors who called today on the Oversee Bessie, aged 26, who it was supposed had fully recovered from a recent slight indisposition, found the woman had died three days ago. In all of that time the body lay alone side her aged husband, a paralytic, who had been unable to give the alarm.

POLICE CHIEF AND BOARD UNDER FIRE

The Bail-bond Traffic Must Be Stopped, Declares Judge Dunne.

San Francisco is one of the biggest graft institutions in the city today. When a man is seen with money he is immediately picked up and booked.

"There are a class of lawyers like vultures to defenseless men. The courts are powerless to check the evil. Something ought to be done."

Attorney McNutt declared that the board of police commissioners were directly responsible for McDonough brothers by allowing them a saloon license. He showed how they had abandoned their saloon across the street from the old hall of justice and had followed the hall to its new location.

"The instrumentalities of Mr. Rose is insignificant and meaningless in comparison to McDonough brothers, who, according to rumor which daily comes to the district attorney's office, are conducting this business, operating under license by the police commissioners. One of these letters says that the police and the police judges are mixed up in the business. I will venture to say that none of these cases are ever in Judge Deasy's court and since a year and a half ago, when $1500 was offered to Judge Shortall in a graft case, he has been allowed to keep the defendant, there are none of these matters brought in his court. The activities of McDonough brothers are not confined to cases where a man is guilty of some crime, but are headquarters for a considerable portion of the city's constabulary. There is an instance where, three times in one week, a man was arrested and forced to contribute money to affect his release. These men fasten themselves upon the civic vitals of this community."

"If this practice keeps on it will continually be inoculating the body politic with the virus of civil leprosy. The district attorney's office is not to blame. This court is not to blame. The district attorney's office will do everything in its power. The matter is one for the police commissioners to handle."

After Daley had been admitted to probation with the consent of McNutt and Judge Dunne had praised the district attorney for his action in exposing the graft, he declared that he would take up the matter again at another time.

The chief of police and the board of police commissioners were requested to be on hand this morning during the hearing, but they failed to put in an appearance.

When Daley was testifying he experienced difficulty in hearing which the court was surprised to find was as a result of his work in the jail mill in San Quentin.

"You don't hear very well?" Inquired the judge.

"No, sir, I am very hard of hearing, because of the three years and seven months I spent in the jail mill in San Quentin."

"Five years, and I got all my credit."

The question arises as to whether the state has the right to impair a prisoner's hearing in addition to requiring a full satisfaction by means of the term of years prescribed by the court.

MISHAP RESULTS IN LOSS OF FOOT

Ross E. Browne, Mining Engineer, Operated on; Hurt Four Years Ago.

As the result of injuries sustained four years ago in jumping from a moving street car, Ross E. Browne, a well-known mining engineer of Oakland, underwent an operation yesterday at the Adair Sanatorium, San Francisco, when the affected foot was amputated. Browne is resting easily at his home, 234 Perry street, and will recover, according to his medical advisers.

The accident injured a number of small bones of the foot and ankle, and since the mishap he has always had trouble with the injured member, which would not heal. For the past month the foot has been more painful than usual, and, despairing of ever restoring it to normal condition, the physicians decided that amputation was the only solution.

Separated 40 Years, Brothers Reunited

PEABODY, Kan., March 13.—Thomas and William Gilman, brothers, who had not seen each other since they were children forty years ago, met by accident at a railway station here today. The two were waiting for a train and casually entered into conversation.

William, a farmer living in Western Nebraska, asked the other his name. A few more words revealed the relationship between them.

Thomas is a New York traveling salesman and has been visiting Nebraska for fifteen years. The brothers became separated when their parents died in New York state.

Take Honeymoon Trip On Snowplow Engine

SALINA, Kan., March 13.—A honeymoon trip on a snowplow was the novel experience of D. C. Stetson, a wealthy ranchman of Pueblo, Colo., and Mrs. Gertrude Marly, who were married at Lincoln Center Monday. The railroad was blocked by snow, and only the huge snowplows, propelled by "double-headed" engines, were running into and out of Salina. When the snowplow had cleared away, and the police had assembled from all quarters of Chinatown, one Chinaman was found to have been shot in the thumb. Numerous arrests were made, and the police guard was increased to keep order until peace is restored.

ONE INJURED THUMB RESULT OF TONG WAR

NEW YORK, March 13.—Tong warfare broke out in Chinatown again today when two Hip Sing stood in the doorway of a store on Mott street and emptied their revolvers into a room crowded with members of the On Leong Society. When the smoke had cleared away, and the police had assembled from all quarters of Chinatown, one Chinaman was found to have been shot in the thumb. Numerous arrests were made, and the police guard was increased to keep order until peace is restored.

ALAMEDA TO HOLD SUMMER CARNIVAL

Partial Organization Takes the Place at Meeting Held Last Night.

ALAMEDA, March 13. — Permanent organization of an Alameda carnival club was effected at an enthusiastic mass meeting held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce in this city last night. F. N. Delaney was elected permanent chairman, and Mrs. M. Lomont was chosen temporary secretary. Mrs. Lomont declined to act as permanent chairman, owing to pressure of other duties. To Chairman Delaney was delegated the place of appointing sub-committees. The members of the committee were then placed at the disposal of the various delegations to be held weekly, the next being for Tuesday evening.

Delegates were present from Chamber of Commerce, the board of education, and the Haight and Lincoln Mothers' Clubs. All expressed their hearty approval of the plan to make the exposition one that will long be remembered as being that which was definitely decided on was that there will not be any disagreeable features that generally mark such occasions. No street shows, no dancing, no carnivals, and no games will figure in the coming year.

At the meeting last night, all of the delegates to the Chamber of Commerce were present, and they were glad to see as approving the enterprise, and pledging support, both financial and moral, to the movement.

POLICEMEN RAID GAMING PLACES

Raids were made upon two Chinese gambling places last night. The arrests were as follows:

Ah Sing, alias Lucky John, of 517 Wood street, was arrested for conducting a gambling game of "chuck luck," by Patrolman Neils, and released on $50 bail.

The following were arrested as visitors: Alfred Jacobs, David Petser, R. Washington, M. Prerail, M. Clark, Arthur Behrman, M. A. Syrial and Arthur Lewee. The visitors were released on $10 bail each.

Leung King of 856 Franklin street, was arrested by Patrolman Neils on a charge of conducting a game of "chuck luck," and released on $50 bail. The following visitors were also arrested: Harry Harper, Fred Wilson, Stephen L. Nicklett and Ah Go.

MUTINEERS MEET WITH DEFEAT

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14th.—The intemperate Wei Chow volunteers who mutinied for three days with the regular army outside of Canton, were routed and escaped on three captured vessels.

According to a cablegram received today from Canton, The battle raged furiously on the nights of March 10 and 11. Three gunboats bombarded the volunteers and forced them to retreat down the PeiL river. It is reported unofficially that all three vessels were sunk by the gunboats.

Many foreigners are leaving Canton for Hong Kong because of the disturbances.

sick headache, dyspepsia, burning sensation, brash, fermentation and the other ills attendant upon a disordered stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are composed of pepsin, and other natural elements that help out the gastric juices of the stomach. They are Nature's digestives, the same kind the stomach uses when it is in good health. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do not merely aid digestion—they actually digest the food themselves. All the hard work is thus taken off the stomach and it gets a chance to rest and recuperate. The undigested food which formerly produced nauseating gases in the stomach becomes thoroughly digested and as a result provides new brain and brawn and nerve cells to replace natural waste always going on.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets act quickly, safely and naturally, just like Nature herself. They are an essential part of the stock of every drug store and are sold at 50c a box. You can get a trial package of them free by writing to E. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Building, Marshall, Mich.

STATE OFFICIALS UP BEFORE GRAND JURY

SACRAMENTO, March 13.—General Superintendent of State Hospitals F. W. Hatch and John F. Neylan, member of the state board of control, went to Napa last evening to appear before the grand jury of that county today and testify in the matter of recent scandal and alleged exposures of graft connected with the management of the Napa State Hospital under the supervision of Dr. Elmer E. Stone. It is expected that the grand jury, which has been investigating the charges against Dr. Stone, alleging embezzlement of state funds, will bring in a report and probably an indictment within a week.

CAPITAL-OAKLAND ROAD IS WANTED

Sacramento Would Have Highway Without Ferry Direct to This City.

SACRAMENTO, March 13.—The Sacramento county people plan to offer such practical assistance to the State Highway Commission in its construction of the main artery of the proposed system of State highways, in order that the long wished for direct route, without ferry, to Oakland will be secured.

The most important highway meetings yet held have been called for next Tuesday afternoon and evening. The county is to be asked to raise $100,000 toward the construction of a highway between Sacramento and a point opposite Antioch. If the plan to have an unnamed railroad build a bridge across the mouth of the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers to Antioch falls, it will be necessary to raise $400,000.

PUBLISHERS TO MERGE WITH $5,000,000 CAPITAL

PHILADELPHIA, March 13.—William J. Morrison, an English promoter, and Baron von Oelger of Munich, have been in this city to complete plans for the merger of some of the largest publishing houses of the East. The new corporation will be known as the International Press, and this syndicate of European and American capitalists has been formed to resist undue competition, place prices upon a stable footing and economize the cost of production.

The company will be capitalized at $5,000,000, and a charter will be asked for this week either at Albany or Harrisburg.

The firms included in the big deal are still reticent about divulging their plans until the charter has been granted, but interviews with Lippincott's, Jacobs and Atterius and other large houses indicate that the plan for the consummation of the deal have been completed. It is planned that the production of the syndicate will average a gross revenue of nearly $10,000,000 per year.

WOLVES DEFEAT HUNTERS.

HANCOCK, Mich., March 13.—A pack of 20 timber wolves has taken up its habitation on the ice a mile out from Eagle river, Michigan, where it is forested on ducks that have become imprisoned in the ice or are too weak from starvation to escape. The animals are so bold that they pay no attention to hunters, who have been unable, because of the roughness of the ice, to shoot them.

MISSION SERVICES WELL ATTENDED

"Dangers of Life," Subject of Sermon by Rev. Thomas Burke Last Night.

Although the weather has been of the stormy kind, it has not been sufficient to dampen the ardor of the large numbers attending the series of mission services which the Paulist Fathers of New York city, Rev. Thomas Burke, C. S. P., and Rev. James O'Hara, C. S. P., are giving this week to the Roman Catholic women of Oakland at St. Mary's church, Seventh and Jefferson streets.

Last evening the church was crowded with women—the attendance reaching almost the 1000 mark. The benediction service last evening was conducted by the Rev. E. P. Dempsey, assisted by the Rev. Thomas Kennedy and the Rev. McGarrigan. The "Dangers of Life's Way" was the topic of the mission lecture, Rev. Thomas Burke, said.

"Last night we considered the evil of sin and how necessary it is, if we would serve God, to fly from that evil, but in order to really avoid sin, we must be determined always to avoid what are called the occasions of sin, those persons, places and things that are liable to lead us into danger. The Scriptures say, 'He that loveth the danger shall perish in it.'"

"Life around us in the present time, offers many occasions of sin there are those dangers which, in themselves, may be evil, and there are those which are evil for particular persons. Among these we might enumerate evil associations, bad reading, immodest conversation and the like."

CONDEMNED BY WORLD.

"The world has come to look upon practices which are reprehended by God, as perfectly in accord with the laws of nature. Some of these offenses against chastity, the world easily condones. Now, this attitude of the world is totally opposed to the law of God and the teachings of Christ. The word of God tells us that all offenses of this nature are a great abomination and a detestable crime."

"Jesus Christ says: 'Blessed are the pure of heart, for they shall see God.' At one time in the history of mankind, as it is related in the Scriptures, it repented God that He had made man. The reason for this was that man had spread the sin of impurity had spread in the world to a terrible degree. The Catholic woman is one who is possessed of higher principles than the world. She therefore, be the more guarded against those dangers that would rob her of her purity of soul and body. It is her duty, therefore, to avoid evil associations around her in the world. You will find a large number of people who have lower principles than yours or perhaps, have no principles whatsoever."

CORRUPTION OF MIND.

"Their conversation is not with God; it is of the earth, earthy. It is about these things which St. Paul says: 'Should not even be mentioned among us.' It is only natural that, if we associate with such, the mind will be corrupted and the heart will lose its purity, such, too, is the case in regard to reading. The world today is filled with a brand of literature, the perusal of which cannot but leave a stain upon the soul. Many, even, of these books which are considered the most popular, are of such a character that they would be a disgrace, even, to a pagan age and a heathen people."

"The soul takes on the character of that which it is given to as nourishment. Constant reading of the vile must necessarily make the soul vile. Opposition to all that is evil in reading is required, therefore, be the attitude of the mind of Catholic women. The same principle should be put into force in regard to the theater. In itself the drama can be not only a legitimate means of entertainment, but also one of the highest means of education in itself. Therefore, it is good to go to a decent play, to one that is morally right, to see acted before the eye scenes from life around us, which at its best is lawful, yet we should guard ourselves to the terrible fact, that even a majority of the plays that are served to the people today are a disgrace to the very name of Christianity."

"Immorality of the lowest type is not only depicted, but actually defended and praised. The result of attendance at such places can be only the loss of high Christian ideals and of true virtues. Common sense and a common decency insists, therefore, in the avoidance of such dangers. The Catholic woman must be steadfast. The mind that goes up to God in prayer cannot feed itself upon the low and the vile. The tongue upon which the body of the Lord rests in holy communion should never be stained by evil conversation. The case that drifts in the message of heaven should never be opened to listen to the impure word. The heart that loves God should never sacrifice itself to the desire and the pursuit of the unchaste."

"The rest of this week will be devoted to the Roman Catholic women of Oakland. Next week the sermons will be for men and if indications come true, it is expected that each night the church will be crowded with men."

The week commencing with March 24 will be devoted to non-Catholics, hundreds of whom have signified their intention to attend. The lectures during this third week will consist of explanations of the principles and practices of the Roman Catholic church. These lectures are intended to give non-Catholics a chance to hear these questions explained in a simple but non-controversial manner.

FIFTEEN NEAR DEATH WHEN VESSEL BURNS

NEW YORK, March 13.—The steamer Jose of the United Fruit company, laden with 10,000 cases of oil, caught fire at her pier today and fifteen men, caught in the steamer's hold, barely escaped. The steamer sank after being pulled out into the East river.

Shipping along the water front was endangered by the blaze. The Jose was taking on oil for Kingston, Jamaica, and a case of gasoline fell and broke open near a lighted lamp.

ITALIANS WITHSTAND ATTACKING TURKS

TOBRUK, Tripoli, March 13.—A strong force of Turks and Arabs yesterday attacked the works which the Italians were throwing up outside the town. They delivered a ferocious assault, but the superiority of the Italian artillery finally told. After five hours of fighting the enemy retired. The Italians lost thirteen men killed and seventy-three wounded.

How to Keep Sponges Sweet and Springy

Most people find sponges hard to keep clean and free from slime, and for his reason have discarded them entirely. However, it is easy to keep them clean and sweet if—in addition to rinsing in clean, warm water after being used—they are boiled once a week in water which has been added a teaspoonful of Gold Dust washing powder, and then used through several clear, warm waters. Wash-cloths should also be boiled in Gold Dust suds and thoroughly used, sunned and ironed. Those of linen crash are more desirable than any ones.

Everything New But the Policy

A new store—a new season—a new beginning, though based on an old foundation.

A situation truly inspiring.

We look into the future with hope and confidence, and back over the past with thankfulness. We see, as if it were but yesterday, our modest beginning of twenty-two years ago and are thankful that the hopes and ideals which had their inception at that time have been realized. Then, problems and perplexities fraught each day of every year, but those, successfully met, became the blocks that built the enduring foundation of this business.

We held then, as now, an inflexible belief that fair dealing begets fair dealing—that an appreciation of the rights of others would find its complement in an appreciation of our rights.

This belief, we are convinced, has made possible our present satisfaction and pleasure in viewing the physical expression of a great mercantile success in the huge white building that now gleams in the center of Oakland's retail district.

Way back at the time of that modest beginning we made certain pledges—and they form the fundamentals of our business precepts and practices today.

They are:

- 1—Fair dealing and mutual helpfulness.
- 2—Dependable merchandise.
- 3—The truthful labeling of every article both behind the counters and before the people in the advertising.
- 4—A fair pricing on an honest valuation strictly adhered to at all times.
- 5—True and loyal service to the people who trade with us.
- 6—Satisfaction to the customers. A sale not concluded until the customer considers it so.
- 7—A store of courtesy and hospitality to all, giving any information about goods or otherwise, cheerfully and freely, and sparing visitors from annoyances when going out without buying.

These, then, were the simple rules in the primer of our business policy and today they remain the same though, throughout the years, they have constantly taken on greater significance and the years to come will find us interpreting them with a still finer sense and greater success.

DISCOVERS GOLD ON ANOTHER'S PROPERTY

GRASS VALLEY, March 13.—After making a rich discovery of gold-bearing ore in the new shaft he had sunk for a distance of thirty feet on the old Eureka mine ground, Murray I. Scott probably will not be able to reap any benefits from it.

It has been learned that Aidan McGee, who gave Scott the bond on the property, does not own it, but, instead, the land is owned by the Eureka company, of which W. G. Morrow is president. The land is covered by a United States patent, no one has been authorized to bond it.

One blast in the shaft yielded several hundred dollars to Scott, the gold being of the leaf variety.

BODIES RECOVERED.

PORTSMOUTH, England, March 13.—The dock in which the British submarine "A-1" is berthed since she has been raised from the bottom after her collision with the depot ship Hazard, on February 2, when her crew of 14 officers and men were drowned, has been pumped out.

The bodies have been removed from the hull, placed in coffins and taken to the H.M. military ship, where an inquest will be held tomorrow.

ACCUSED OF PUTTING BABY ON R. R. TRACK

TRENTON, Mo., March 13.—Vane Murphy, railroad fireman, was arrested last night after a coroner's jury had returned a verdict accusing him of having put the infant of Pearl Tallman on the railroad track in the Park Hotel yard in St. Louis.

Parts of the child's body were found February 25. Dr. D. W. Delsho, whose disappearance for several days recently was one of the features of the case, testified he attended the Tallman girl at the birth of the child. Murphy refused to make a statement.

PERKINS BUYS INTEREST IN NEW YORK PAPER

SANTA CRUZ HATCHERY MAY PASS TO STATE

SANTA CRUZ, March 13.—W. H. Shepley and D. W. Hunt, superintendents respectively of the State fish hatcheries at Sisson and Lake Tahoe, have been here conferring with the supervisors regarding the sale of the Santa Cruz Hatchery.

Commission taking over the control of the Brookdale hatchery, established by this county in 1905 and maintained by the county ever since.

According to the plan, the commission will simply control, not buy, the property, and the county will receive $50,000 for each year. The hatchery will be kept open all of the year, and the spawning beds at Scott's creek will also be maintained by the State. The local hatchery has been eminently successful, hatching from two to three million fry annually.

WANDERER DIES.

PETALUMA, March 13.—Frank Hinda, also known as Frank Cashdollar, a well known and quiet character, whose home was all over California and who comes from a well known family in San Jose, passed away at the Capella ranch near Sibley city yesterday as the result of exposure from lying all night on the road. He was found almost frozen and unconscious. The body was brought in this city and the inquest will probably be held by the Marin county coroner.

KINDERGARTENS FOR CHINA.

LOS ANGELES, March 13.—Miss Mary E. Laguard, for the past fourteen years kindergarten supervisor of the Los Angeles public schools, is preparing to leave for Foo Chow, China, to install a complete kindergarten system in the new republic.

Renewing Complexions by Absorption

If your complexion is marred with blotches, sallowness, moth patches, pimples, blackheads or freckles, it's useless to putter with powders and paints, jellies, creams and things. Unless you have some ability as an artist you'll mar your appearance still more. The new and rational way is to take off the complexion itself, with all its offensive marks. Just get an ounce of pure mercolized wax at the drug-gists and use at night same as cold cream. Remove next morning with water and soap. The mercolized wax absorbs the half-dead scarf skin in flaky particles, so gradually no one guesses you're treating your face—unless it be by the result, which is truly wonderful. There's nothing like it for restoring a natural, healthy and beautiful complexion.—Aunt Sally.

The Matter of River Improvement.

It is to be regretted that the House Committee declined to include in the Rivers and Harbors bill an item appropriating $100,000 for continuing improvement and toward the controlling of debris and floods in the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers and their tributaries, in accordance with the recommendations of the California Debris Commission, which have been heretofore approved by Congress and by act of the California Legislature. Attached to the item was a proviso that no part of the appropriation of $100,000 should be expended till the State of California has deposited $200,000 with the treasurer of the United States to be expended in the improvement jointly undertaken by the Federal government and the State of California.

Senator Perkins will endeavor to have the item restored to the bill when it reaches the Senate, and it is to be hoped that he will succeed, for it is of vast importance that the work contemplated in the scheme of improving the rivers and controlling the flood waters should be inaugurated at the earliest possible moment. This scheme embraces a plan for improving the rivers for navigation purposes, controlling the flood waters and the reclamation of a vast area of productive lands subject to overflow. All three of the purposes to be served are embraced in one comprehensive project, and cannot be separated for treatment.

This plan of flood control is the one recommended by the California Debris Commission, afterwards approved by the War Department and adopted by legislative action by California at the recent special session, and now before Congress for action. It contemplates taking care of the excess waters coming into the Sacramento river in flood season—about six times what the river's channel will carry—by conveying them, by means of by-passes, through the Sutter and Yolo basins, down to tide water. It contemplates the nation paying one-third of the expense involved and the State being responsible for two-thirds, one-half of which portion it is planned to collect from the benefited property owners. The total cost to the Federal government will be $11,000,000, while the State and the benefited property owners will be required to furnish $22,000,000, the entire sum to be expended under the direction of the engineers of the War Department. It is estimated that the work of improvement will cover a period of eleven years. Hence the necessity of an early beginning.

It is extraordinary that Congress should balk at such a small amount as the $100,000 asked for. Land reclamation is merely incidental to the scheme of flood water control, which is essential to keeping the river channels permanently open to navigation. These channels intersect the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys longitudinally, and if kept open to free navigation at all seasons of the year, hold in check freight charges on the railroads. When the flood waters are brought under permanent and systematic control the navigation problem will be solved for all time. The lands incidentally reclaimed will pay one-third the cost of an improvement having the preservation of the navigable waterways of the State for its primary object.

Hydraulic mining is largely responsible for the choking up of the channels of the Sacramento river and its tributaries. This choking up has added enormously to the difficulty and expense of reclaiming the overflowed lands. The Federal government was responsible for the injury, both to the navigable channels and the tule lands, to the extent that hydraulic mining was conducted on government lands under Federal license and could not be stopped by the State. Hydraulic mining has been stopped, but the injury it did to the streams remains, and it is this injury that the plan of improvement under contemplation was devised to correct. Hence an act of justice, or reparation, is involved in the joint project approved by Congress and the Legislature of California.

There should be no delay in beginning this work. It cannot be commenced till Congress makes an appropriation, since the appropriation made by the State Legislature is conditioned on the government expending one-third the amount expended by the State and the beneficiaries of the land reclamation. The small appropriation denied by the House Committee should be restored by Senate action, in which case we are confident it will be adopted by the conference report.

Nebraska Bill is not going to let himself be outdone by Oyster Bay Ted. He has made a speech to the Ohio constitutional convention advocating the recall of judges. Emma Goldman and Jawberry Jones are yet to be heard from.

Johnson Not a Sure Reliance.

The cock-sure gentlemen who are figuring that Governor Johnson's popularity will pull the Roosevelt delegates through at the primary had better examine the returns from the gubernatorial primary before they bet any money on their illusion.

Governor Johnson did not receive a majority of the Republican votes cast at the primary. The opposition vote was divided among four candidates, which allowed the Governor to win by a substantial plurality. But his vote was a minority of the total. On a square division of the vote he was beaten.

But a large number of the men who voted for Johnson in the gubernatorial primary will vote for Taft. They are encountered at every turn. Prominent in this class are Marshall Hale of San Francisco, A. L. Shinn of Sacramento and Dr. Chester Rowell of Fresno. Practically none of the men who voted for other Republican candidates for Governor will vote for the Roosevelt delegates.

Moreover, a La Follette ticket will be in the field in this State. It may not poll a large vote, but what strength it has will be drawn from the Johnson element. La Follette will get his support from men who voted to nominate Johnson in 1910. There will be no division in the Taft ranks. For another thing, Johnson is weaker than he was when he ran for Governor. His administration has not given satisfaction to many of his supporters.

Senator Culberson of Texas presents an instructive example of inconsistency in opposing the confirmation of Chauncey Mahlon W. Pitney, nominated as Justice Harlan's successor on the Supreme Bench. Senator Culberson is an enthusiastic supporter of Woodrow Wilson for the Presidency. Woodrow Wilson has commended the appointment of Chauncey Pitney in the warmest terms—his commendation could hardly have been warmer had Judge Pitney been a Democrat and Wilson's own appointee. Yet Senator Culberson challenges the endorsement of the man he champions as a Presidential candidate.

Lieutenant Governor Wallace made what the late Bill Briggs was wont to call a "fox pass" when he referred to La Follette by name at the Johnson-Roosevelt meeting in Los Angeles. There was a loud cheer for the Wisconsin man. Evidently a good many of the so-called Progressive believe Battle Rob has been badly treated by the men who induced him to become a candidate and then betrayed him at the bidding of a wretched opportunism.

THE POLITICAL WILL O' THE WISP

Dr. Rowell States the Issue.

In two propositions, plainly and concisely stated, Dr. Chester Rowell (not the Chester H. Rowell, who has been flipflopping around the State as an unreconstructed and irreconcilable reformer) covers the entire issue between President Taft and Theodore Roosevelt. Says Dr. Rowell:

"Generally speaking, every man who stops to consider, will say that President Taft has made one of the best balanced and most conspicuous Presidents the country has ever had. For one thing he has brought about a treaty of peace which means more than anything Roosevelt ever had to his credit.

"To me, one reason alone is sufficient to cause me to be against Mr. Roosevelt. The unwritten law is more binding than the written and the principle set down by George Washington that no man should become a President for the third time, I believe is just as applicable now as it was then."

This is the statement of an experienced man of affairs who cannot be blinded by clamor or sophistry, and who discerns the distinction between real and false issues. He believes Taft deserves a second term because he is one of the best balanced Presidents the country has ever had, and is opposed to Roosevelt because he believes the third-term precedent is binding in principle. A volume would not cover the case more completely or state the issue more succinctly.

"Last night's Taft meeting indicates that the small local scattering of Roosevelt insurgents had better surrender and come in out of the rain," says the Fresno Herald. Yet only a few days ago the Fresno Republican announced that the "people are a unit for Roosevelt." But now it appears that the directors and principal stock-owners of the Republican are for Taft, and that the editorials in that paper are merely the personal opinions of Chester H. Rowell. The real opinions of the Republican are expressed, apparently, by Dr. Chester Rowell in speeches advocating the renomination and re-election of President Taft. As the Sacramento Bee says, the situation is altogether delightful. The fun of it is that Chester H. Rowell, nephew of Dr. Rowell, does not consider his uncle and the other stock-owners of the Republican as belonging to the people. He would call them reactionaries if he dared.

Kansas and Progress.

"Kansas is for progress and the right, as she has always been," says Senator Bristow.

Let us see. In 1864 Kansas was opposed to the renomination of Abraham Lincoln. Samuel C. Pomeroy, immortalized in "The Gilded Age" under the name of Senator Dilworthy, sent out a circular letter calling upon the people of Kansas to repudiate Lincoln and his administration. Pomeroy was endorsed and sent back to the Senate, but Lincoln was renominated and re-elected.

In 1896 Kansas voted for William J. Bryan and free silver, but William McKinley was elected President and the gold standard established by law.

So Kansas has not always been for progress and the right—not even when Jerry Simpson, the Sockless Socrates of Medicine Lodge, was elected to Congress and the Hon. "Whiskers" Peffer sent to the Senate. After a brief season of sanity Kansas has again turned to Pefferism and the school of economics so vociferously exemplified by Jerry Simpson. Pomeroy, it may be added, was exposed and pilloried as a grafter and briber. But he was an unctious Sunday school lecturer and a prayerful leader in Congress.

Senator Bristow may think he is progressing when he is following the footsteps of Pomeroy, Sockless Simpson and Whiskers Peffer, but it is a trail that the people at large have always regarded as leading to national disaster. Even Roosevelt sidesteps it and is blazing a new path for himself.

The more the Colonel talks about Lincoln the less he is inclined to follow him. For obvious reasons he has nothing to say about Washington.

SERMONS IN BRIEF

"SHE HAS ARRIVED."
(By Rev. W. D. Simonds, pastor of First Unitarian church.)

Passing a theatrical billboard every day for two weeks I saw in letters a foot long or more, the phrase: "She has arrived." One day I felt to thinking how much that phrase meant—hence the sermon. A mere theatrical advertisement it expressed in the people's vocabulary just the lesson I wish to teach.

This lady, whether singer, or dancer, or actress, I know not—had achieved something; so that while hundreds of people arrive in Oakland every day unheralded, the coming of this lady was of sufficient interest to her own constituency to warrant expensive advertising. "She has arrived." Evidently the lady of the theater has won assured success. Why? There must be a reason.

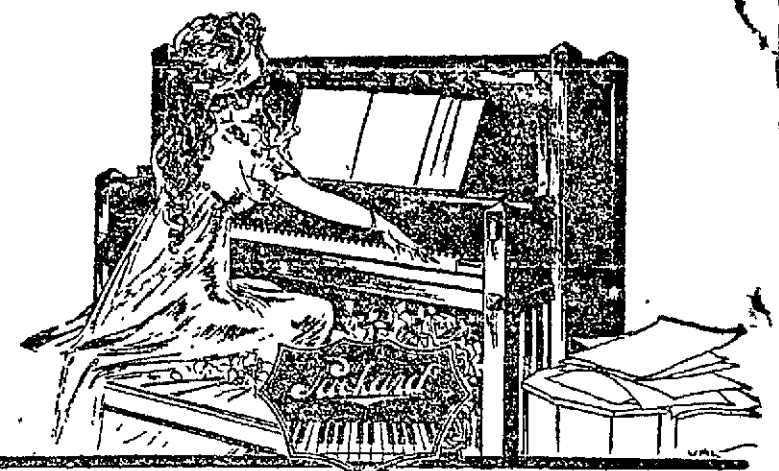

Difference in labor, or, as we say, natural talent? Yes and no. The successful possess more natural talent than some who fail, but less than others who fail. So labor ability appears not to be the determining factor. The woods are full, and so are the cities, of capable men who achieve little or nothing. Strong men physically, bright men intellectually, yet they do not make good husbands, or wise fathers, or desirable citizens, who really count for something worth while. How many women of fine physique, intelligent and interesting, may be found in every community? Yet they are so devoid of real strength that they seem never actually to have lived. Our lady of the stage "arrived."

AS SHE SAW IT.
Without knowing a line of her history I hazard nothing in saying that there was in her heart a fervent, perhaps a fierce, desire to act, to sing, or dance under the theater's ample arch. A hundred times in girlhood she pictured herself a creature of grace and beauty upon the stage. Times without number she heard, in fancy, the applause of the multitude. This was her vision, her ideal. This it was that stiffened her sinews for the long battle, gave her patience under trial, gave her hope in the midst of discouragement, and at last brought her to victory. First of all, then, write it true there is no success without vision.

I am sure, too, that "she" would never have arrived but for her persistent will. It is the "I-am-bound-to-die-fighting-spirit" that compels an unwilling world to at last acknowledge merit. In a regiment of good beginners there are several hundreds of early quitters. Only a few pay the price, the full price of honest success. "This day we sailed westward, which was our course," wrote Columbus for many weary weeks, but he found the new world. "The gods sell all things at a fair price," even continents.

And I am also sure that my unknown queen of comedy worked on with a cheerful courage. She took her life and her art seriously, but not too seriously. She worked, but she did not fret. "I dare not fret than curse or swear," said John Wesley. "Give us the man who sings at his work," said Carlyle. "He will do more work and do it better." A cheerful courage and a calm confidence are master forces opening the door to achievement. Work, but laugh and sing at your work. The world will set head and reward.

LOCOMOTIVE MEN WILL GIVE BALL

E. C. Fellows lodge of the Brotherhood Locomotive Firemen and Engineermen will hold its fifth annual ball Tuesday evening, April 16, at Maple hall, and committees are now at work on arrangements. It is expected the ball will be one of the largest of the season, only the policemen's dance having outdone it in numbers in the past.

Preparations will be made for three hundred couples. A picked orchestra will furnish the music, and a number of original dances will be arranged. The dance will continue to 3 a. m., after which special trains will be on hand to conduct dancers to their homes in Alameda and Berkeley and different parts of Oakland.

E. C. Riles is the floor manager and chairman of the general committee of arrangements. Other members of the committee are J. C. Grow, W. C. Wilson and L. D. Brooks.

DECLARE COLONEL IS EVADING ISSUES

President Taft's Managers Give Opinion of Roosevelt's Primary Talk.

CHICAGO, March 13.—President Taft's managers in Illinois renewed their aggressive movement on the third-term campaign yesterday when the charge was made that Theodore Roosevelt was centering his fire on the presidential primary issue for the sole purpose of drawing the attention of the people from other and more important questions, and attempting so to befog the situation that he might slip away with the nomination at the June convention.

Emphasis was laid on the fact that only in a few places in the country could presidential primaries be held under the law and the best Roosevelt could hope for as a result of his agitation is an unauthorized primary absolutely outside the pale of the law.

George A. Mason, secretary of the Taft club of Illinois, said in part: "In several years Taft's predecessor was in the White House what did he do about getting a revision of the tariff? Absolutely nothing. What has he said about the tariff in the present campaign? Not a single word. What has he said about other vital issues before the people? Practically nothing. He has come out as an apostle of the doctrine of the recall of judges and of judicial decisions, a doctrine that Taft in his speech at Toledo and in his speeches in Chicago annihilated utterly."

PERSONALITIES BARRED.
WASHINGTON, March 13.—After a conference participated in by President Taft, Senators of Massachusetts, Director McKinley of the Taft campaign bureau and secretary to President Taft, it became known that the president had insisted, it was said, that this method of attack be abandoned.

While no plan of campaign was made public it was said the Taft leaders would devote their attention largely to such issues as the third term, the recall of judges and other questions of national interest.

Officials of the Republican National committee have been asked about the fact that New Mexico has chosen eight delegates to the Chicago convention, although the call for the convention entitles the new state to but six. The New Mexico delegation chosen last week has been claimed in part both by Taft and Roosevelt supporters. The representation of states in the Chicago convention is based on the new Congressional apportionment, two delegates for each Senator and member of Congress.

New Mexico now has two members of Congress, but under the new apportionment will have only one. Secretary William Hayward of the committee has been asked for a ruling.

KNOWLAND GETS MANY TELEGRAMS
Organizations All Over Country Urge Free Canal Tolls for Americans.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Representative Knowland said today that he had received letters and telegrams from nearly every commercial association in the country urging free Panama tolls for American shipping. Among the organizations protesting against the action of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee in refusing to grant American ships preference are the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, New Orleans; Progressive Union and Lakes-to-Gulf Deep Waterways Association.

Knowland is engaged in preparing the minority report on the bill which he made to the House the latter part of this week. It will probably be three weeks before the bill is reached on the floor of the House.

MORE THAN 500,000 TO VOTE IN CHICAGO
CHICAGO, March 13.—More than a half million citizens are eligible to vote at the city election held April 2 at the county and state primaries in April. This establishes a new record for Chicago. Yesterday was registration day for voters not already registered. During the day 112,841 names were added to the list of voters, bringing the unregistered total to 528,522.

CLIMATE HURTS WEAK LUNGS
In this climate there are always numbers of people whose lungs are weak and who either have a chronic cough or else catch cold easily and are very likely to take pneumonia.

A New York girl, Miss Louise Jemel, has written a letter on this subject, saying, "In the past year I have been troubled with weak lungs and palpitation of the heart. Having heard that Vinol was a great strengthener I began taking it and it has done me a world of good."

"I have no cough now, my heart is all right and I have gained greatly in strength and energy."

Naturally as soon as her strength had been built up to the right point by Vinol, all symptoms of her former trouble vanished.

This delicious cod liver and iron remedy, without oil, not only creates strength and enriches the blood, but always agrees with the stomach. Get a bottle of Vinol today and begin receiving its curative power. We guarantee it to please you. The Owl Drug Co., Oakland, Cal.

HALE PAYS HONOR TO RAILROAD MAN

Samuel Moody Made Special Luncheon Guest Because of Work Done for Fair.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—R. B. Hale of Hale Brothers gave a luncheon to Colonel Samuel Moody, passenger traffic manager of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at the Red Room of the Bohemian Club yesterday, as a recognition of the services rendered by Moody to the 1915 exposition.

There were also present: C. L. Kimball of Chicago, George H. Samis of New York, Morris Lowenstein of Manila, Commissioner from the Philippine Islands, H. A. Buck, local passenger traffic manager of the Pennsylvania Railroad; E. O. McCormick, James McNab, Ed. Loman, William C. Ralston, A. V. Scott Jr., J. E. Shoberg, Charles S. Fee and John Brittain of San Francisco.

In response to the chief toast, Colonel Moody said: "The San Francisco Exposition must essentially be different from all former expositions that have been held in this country or in any other country."

"The other expositions have celebrated some event that has passed. Those expositions were consequently 'has-beens.' The 1915 Exposition will celebrate that which is and that which shall be, and is therefore an 'is-to-be.' San Francisco will not so much celebrate history as she will make history. San Francisco is not a 'has-been.' San Francisco is and shall be. And we in the east know that her exposition will be the greatest and the grandest that ever was."

SCHOOLS TO RAISE PRESS STANDARD

Newspapers Must Seek Level of Lowest Reader, Says Correspondent Low.

NEW HAVEN, March 13.—The American press is at the level of its lowest reader, in the opinion of A. Maurice Low, Washington correspondent of the London Post, who delivered the second of the annual Bromley lectures on journalism at Yale University last night.

The only hope of raising the newspaper standard, he said, is in the schools, and colleges.

He condemned the publishing of stories of crime and said that, in his mind, the ideal paper would be one that was endowed and the members of its staff specialists in particular lines of work.

The comic supplement, Low declared, is responsible in great measure for the bad manners and rudeness of American children.

'BIG STICK' TO BE GIFT TO PRESIDENT

Shillalah Will Be Presented to Taft by Resident of Salem.

BOSTON, March 13.—President Taft will soon own a "big stick." While in Boston next Monday he will be presented with a shillalah which, according to the inscription it bears, was taken from a tree that grew beside Napoleon's tomb at St. Helena.

In a cavity at the bottom of the cane is and taken from the battlefield at Lexington, kept in place by a plug of wood from the Washington club, a plug in the handle is made of wood from the Paul Revere battery. Another feature is an imbedded Lincoln penny.

The stick is the gift of a Salem man, who now rests in the office of Mayor Fitzgerald, awaiting the arrival of the President.

WAVES GIVE UP STORY OF DISASTER AT SEA

VICTORIA, B. C., March 13.—Wood from a lifeboat and a life buoy marked "bark Patsy" were found yesterday on the northeast coast of Graham island, near where approximately 30,000 feet of lumber drifted ashore last week. No vessel named "Patsy" is listed.

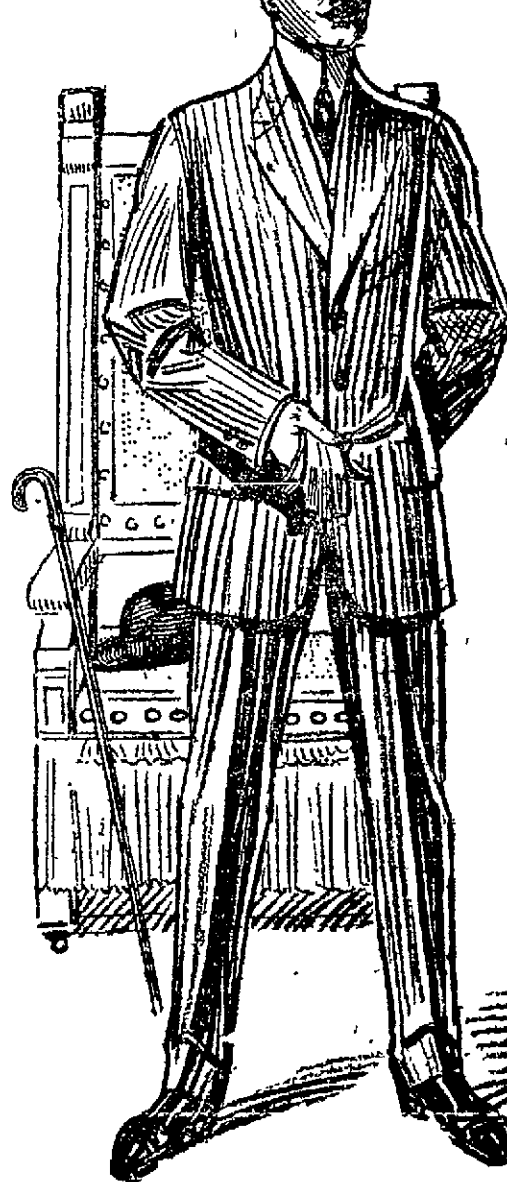

The flotation has caused fear for the safety of the 400-ton freighter Leobro of Victoria, which sailed from Prince Rupert February 21 with a cargo of lumber for the Langara Island Lighthouse. The tug William J. Jelliffe sailed from Victoria today with orders to search for other wreckage. The Leobro was in command of Captain Hunter and carried a crew of ten men, including Chief Engineer A. Lee.

WANAMAKER URGED TO SEEK HEALTH ABROAD

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 13.—John Wanamaker, who has been confined to his home during the greater part of the month, is being urged by friends and members of the family to go to Europe for a rest, and it is probable that he will sail before the end of the present month.

Late last week he was able to go to his office, but on Sunday and yesterday he was unable to leave the house. He was first attacked by a severe cold, which physicians since diagnosed and caused the physicians much concern. They say, however, that there is no danger of pneumonia.

How to Cure Rheumatism

Prominent Doctor's Best Prescription Easily Mixed at Home.

This simple and harmless formula has worked wonders for all who have tried it quickly curing chronic and acute rheumatism and backache. From your druggist get one ounce of Toris compound (in original sealed package) and one ounce of syrup of Sarsaparilla compound. Take these two ingredients home and put them in a half pint of good whiskey. Shake the bottle and take a tablespoonful before each meal and at bedtime. Good results come. If it does not have Toris compound in it, it will not get you in a few hours from his wholesale house. Don't be influenced to take a patent medicine instead of this. Insist on having the genuine Toris compound yellow package. This was published here last winter and hundreds of the worst cases were cured by it in a short time.

BELIEVE THIEVING CLERK IS IN S. F.

Colorado Postoffice Employee,
Wanted for $5000 Theft,
May Be on Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—Warren Davis, formerly a postoffice clerk at Salida, Colo. who is wanted by the Federal authorities who have been searching for him all over the country, is believed to have arrived in San Francisco within the last few days, and this morning a special detail of inspectors was sent out to try to locate him.

Davis succeeded in obtaining $5000 in currency which had been sent through the Colorado postoffice in a registered package. The details of the theft are lacking, but it is understood that the sending of the package was a matter of common notoriety in Salida and that Davis deliberately set about stealing it.

Immediately after the theft he fled, and although the government officials started on his trail they were unable to locate him. When news of his arrival in this city was flashed last night the inspectors began their search, and it is thought that the much-wanted man is either in this city or in Oakland.

Davis is described as a young man who carries a revolver and who would have no hesitancy in using it should the occasion warrant it. He is 25 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches tall, weighs 160 pounds, and has brown hair, hazel eyes and a prominent nose.

Inspector W. I. Maderia is in charge of the secret service operatives who are working on the case.

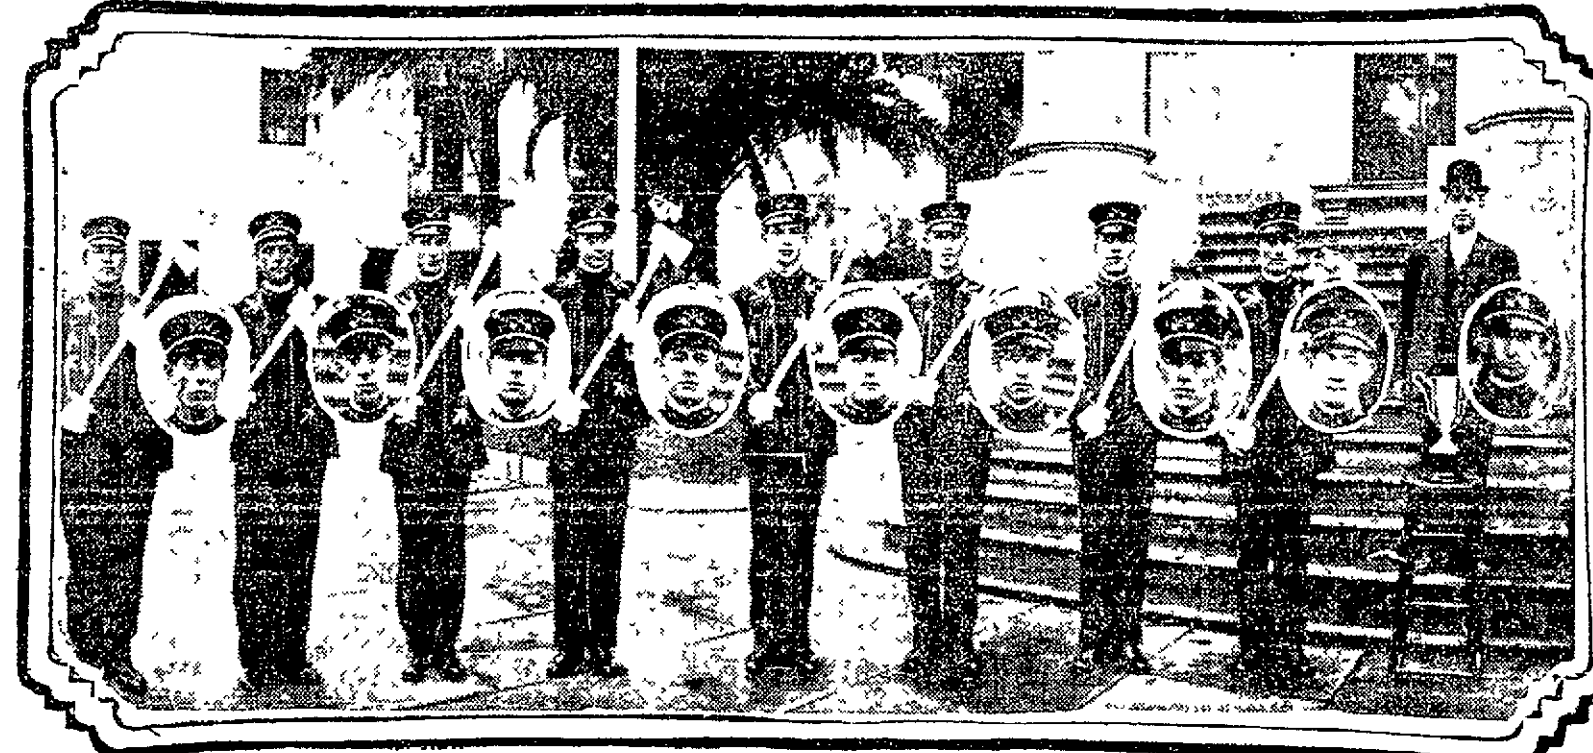

AUTOS KILL 148 IN NEW YORK IN YEAR

HARTFORD, Conn., March 13.—The secretary of the state of Connecticut has been collecting statistics from various states showing the number of fatalities resulting from automobile accidents. The statistics thus far gathered are highly creditable to the efficiency of the Connecticut law. This state had but twenty deaths in 1911, while Rhode Island had 26 and Massachusetts 110. New York City had 148 deaths, Providence 9 and Buffalo 14.

ELECTION AFFAIRS ARE IN A TANGLE

Application to Be Made for Permanent Writ in the Richmond Case.

RICHMOND, March 13—With four sets of candidates out for office, a writ of mandate calling for a recall election, a temporary restraining order issued by Judge Seawell of the San Francisco superior court against such procedure, and a violation of this by the city council in calling an election to recall themselves, the election being set for April 8, voters, city officials and voters of this city are today in a tangle that seems almost in-possible to unravel.

For over a year five members of the county board, J. Owens, Joy Hartnett, John Pooling, Ed McDuff and J. B. Wilhelms fought a suit brought by T. G. Conn in the Contra Costa courts for a writ compelling them to call the election, and known as the "Conn case." The suit was finally carried upward. The supreme court denied the appeal. A writ was prepared by the county clerk and served and the election was called.

The writ was granted on a showing that the signatures on the original recall petition were not regular. Application will be made Friday for a permanent writ.

In trying to call the election Mayor Conn has been in a very awkward position. The resolution, otherwise it would not have been carried and with Councilman G. A. Follett, E. J. Garrard and Otto Ludewicks placed themselves in contempt of Superior Court. They were fined $500 each. He announced that at the next meeting of the city council he would move to reconsider the action taken that evening while Duolung voted for the resolution so he could a year and a half ago when Orlin Hudson city engineer, was dismissed from office and his friends took up his fight against the city's decision to remove him. Involved in the run for re-election, if the section was called, there is a ticket in the field composed of men leading the fight against them, composed of H. L. Penry, J. F. Chandler, Fred C. Schram, W. S. McCracken, A. Eisele and J. F. Taber. These men filed their nomination petitions at the time the recall petitions were presented and Penry is now a councilman having beaten H. E. NE of the prettiest of the mid-Lenten affairs was given yesterday at the home of Mrs. Mark Requa, who entertained delightfully at luncheon, asking a dozen matrons to share her hospitality.

The table appointments were in shades of yellow. The guests spent the later hours of the afternoon at the card tables. Another matron, who will entertain later in the season is Mrs. Walter Cole, who has just moved into a new home on Santa Clara avenue.

The Coles are planning to build late in the year, near the home of Mrs. Cole's sister, Mrs. Bernard Miller, in East Oakland.

WEDDING LAST NIGHT.

A pretty wedding took place last night when Miss Rosalie Hamilton, daughter of the late S. J. Hamilton and Mrs. Hamilton, became the bride of Frederick Allard in the First Christian Church of this city, with Rev. Thomas A. Boyer as the officiating pastor.

The edifice was decorated in acacia, palms, masses of greens and daffodils, carrying out a color scheme of yellow and green.

The bride's gown was a lovely one of white satin, fashioned along simple lines, with the bodice elaborated in lace. The wedding veil, caught in place with a cluster of lilacs-of-the-valley, fell in folds to the hem of the train. The bride carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Frank Nebeker, a sister of the bride. She wore yellow satin, with an overdress of silver lace, and carried a bouquet of frezias.

The bridesmaids, Miss Emma Butcher, Miss Emily New, Miss Ethel Caldwell and Miss Freda Nor, wore gowns of yellow and green chiffon over the same toned satin, carrying armfuls of daffodils.

William Ward of Sacramento assisted Allard as best man. The ushers were Dr. A. S. Kelly, Howard Adams, Robert Parker and W. G. Simpson.

The bride was given into her husband's keeping by her uncle, Luke Hamilton of San Francisco.

After a honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Allard will make their home in Bakersfield, where the former is manager of a large concern.

CLUB ENTERTAINED.

The Setau Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Alvina Leudeking on Monday evening. It was a miscellaneous complimentary shower to Miss Hatcher, whose marriage to Alvin Spencer is to be an early event, and also to announce the engagement of another club member, Miss Mae Yost, who is to be married to Edwin Oyster. The decorations were red hearts and red carnations. The girls that were present are: Miss Esther Roth, Miss Etsie Schmitt, Miss Edna Swartz, Miss Etsie Hatcher, Miss Helen Brown, Miss Nell Hatcher, Miss Mae Yost, Mrs. Leah Hannon, Miss Mayme Deasey, Mrs. Alvina Leudeking, Miss Estelle Wayne.

WEDDING THIS MONTH.

Dr. Thomas Edward Moore of Berkeley will, on March 25, claim as a bride Miss Virginia Potter, daughter of Mrs. Clara Potter of San Francisco. The bride-elect is a prominent society maid and has been complimented with numerous pleasant affairs.

HIS ECZEMA GONE AND BOILS CURED

Eczeema Began When Three Weeks Old. Arms, Shoulders and Breast a Solid Scab. Boils Broke Out During Teething. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and He Was the Picture of Health.

3235 Jackson St., Colorado Springs, Colo.—My son was about three weeks old when I noticed a breaking-out on his cheeks, from which a watery substance oozed. A short time after, his arms, shoulders and breast broke out also, and in a few days became a solid scab. The little fellow was under treatment for about three months. By the end of that time, he seemed no better. I became discouraged. I commenced using Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and in a few days noticed a marked change. The scurrying on his cheeks was almost healed, and his shoulders, arms and breast were decidedly better. When he was nearly a year old, I had him treated with Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and he was the picture of health. During his teething period, his head and shoulders were broken out in boils which I cured with Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Surely he has been a great sufferer. During the time of teething I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, nothing else, and when two years old he was the picture of health. His complexion was soft and beautiful, and he had a sweet, silky skin. I had been afraid that he would never be well, and that I loved a great deal to the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. (Signed) Mrs. Mary W. Ramsey, 3235 Jackson St., Colorado Springs, Colo.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere. Samples of each mailed free, upon request. Address, "Cuticura," Dept. 5, Boston. Stomach-affected men should take Cuticura with a laxative.

EBELL CLUB GIVES LUNCHEON. Ebell Club held its luncheon yesterday in its clubrooms, which were thronged with nearly 200 members and guests. Mrs. A. K. Munton was chairman of the day. trained. She was ably accompanied by Mrs. Lowell Redfield. An interesting half hour talk by Miss Lillian Matthews on "Civic Conditions in New York," was given.

Miss Matthews was a student of sociology, and has thoroughly delved into the needs of women and children in the industrial world. She is at present taking post-graduate work at the University of California, and expects to receive her doctor's degree of philosophy at the end of the semester. She dwelt largely upon the work of the Educational Alliance, the betterment of the emigrants, and the methods of fitting and educating the children up to the point where they may enter the public schools, which takes about six months for each child.

HOSTESSES-TO-BE.

Miss Esther Person will give a card party tomorrow night when her guests will include the members of a bridge club.

An informal luncheon will be given tomorrow by Mrs. Leroy Hackett, who will also entertain the members of a local card club.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Miss Florence Henrietta Agency on Saturday afternoon will entertain forty guests at a party in honor of her birthday anniversary.

TO ARRIVE FROM MANILA.

Mrs. Wickham Quinn will arrive from Manila on Friday and will visit Mr. and Mrs. Herman Krust for a few days before returning to the Philippines on the Manchuria. Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Quinn, assisted by a dozen local matrons to share their hospitality.

TO GO ABROAD.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Greenwood and Miss Marion Greenwood are planning to take a European trip this summer. They plan to leave for the East in a month and their stay abroad will be indefinite.

INFORMAL BRIDGE AFTERNOON.

Miss Anna Head of Berkeley will entertain on Friday at an informal bridge party in honor of her house guest, Miss Corinne Walsh of London, who is being given numerous affairs during her stay here.

DANCING CLASS.

A group of young matrons of Berkeley have combined to form a class in the fine art of dancing and will meet weekly to study classic and folk steps. Miss Mary Shattler, a well known society girl, will lead in their study. The members are: Mrs. Raymond Wilson, Mrs. Frank Woodward, Mrs. William Belcher, Mrs. Bruce Cornwall, Mrs. Arthur Wahl, Mrs. Ralph Phelps, Mrs. Edward Blake, Mrs. John Fletcher.

HILL CLUB MEETS.

The Hill Club passed a very pleasant afternoon with Mrs. Elizabeth Chambers, the chief feature of the program being a talk on "The Necessity of Protective Young Women Christian Association Work," by Miss Green.

Current Events were handled by Mrs. A. P. Handley and Mrs. Julian Mathieu read a short story, "The Night Was So Glad I Was Here Tonight." Mrs. A. C. Nash sang "Love, the Fiddler," by Del Riego, and the "Shadow March," by Edward German. In her usual charming manner, a piano solo, "Godard's second Mazurka," and Raff's "La Filleuse," executed by Mrs. H. M. Wright, was very much enjoyed.

The club will meet Monday, March 18, with Mrs. Arthur L. Adams, 650 Oakland avenue.

CUDAHY CHILDREN TAKEN SECRETLY FROM CONVENT IN SOUTH

Former Wife of Packer Prostrated, But Declares She Will Follow Little Ones.

ASADENA, March 13.—Prostrated from the shock of having her three children, who were in a convent near Alhambra, whisked to Chicago without her knowledge, Mrs. Jack Cudahy, the divorced wife of the son of the Chicago millionaire pork packer, is confined to her bed at 538 Arroyo Crest in this city. She made the discovery of the little ones' removal while making preparations to pay her weekly visit to the convent.

The Cudahy children were removed on March 5. Mrs. Cudahy thinks they have been taken to the home of their aunt, Mrs. Clara Cudahy, in Chicago.

Mrs. Cudahy, who has a residence in Pasadena, was appointed guardian of the children, with the consent of the mother, at the time of the divorce.

The mother is preparing to move to Chicago, and declares she will go wherever the children are taken.

"No one can keep me away from my little ones," said Mrs. Cudahy. "I have suffered torments since I have been here, but where my children are taken I will follow. Since I have been here I have been the subject of plots, the prey of detectives and subjected to countless annoyances."

"There is no law which can keep me from my children, and though relatives may try to make my life miserable, I will endure all to be near my little ones."

Mrs. Cudahy says that as soon as she can complete preparations she will depart for Chicago.

The case of Morris J. Condory, held on a charge of attempted burglary, following an intrusion in the home of Mrs. Cudahy on the evening of February 28, came up in Judge McDonald's court this afternoon. Condory is in the Los Angeles county jail.

Says He Dodged

NEW YORK, March 13.—Mrs. Janet Phillips, a fascinating New York widow, yesterday filed suit for $100,000 damages against Chester W. Chapin, multi-millionaire and member of a half dozen exclusive clubs, alleging breach of promise. The complainant charges that Mr. Chapin promised to marry her January 25, 1902, "but instead married a certain person—to wit, Elizabeth Jensen Chapin—contrary to the said promise to the plaintiff," she said yesterday.

Chapin said yesterday that he had known Mrs. Phillips for fifteen years, but had lost track of her the last seven years. Mrs. Phillips' lawyer made the statement that his client had a bundle of burning love letters which she will produce when the case comes to trial.

Mrs. Taft, Nemesis

PITTSBURGH, March 13.—Mrs. William Howard Taft, wife of the President, was the chief nemesis of Gilbert B. Perkins, head of the Perkins Detective Agency, and Charles Franklin, manager of the Philadelphia branch, who left here yesterday for the Fort Leavenworth (K.A.) prison to begin life as convicts of three years respectively.

They used the mails to defraud by sending "black-hand" letters to Mrs. Charles Strong of Erie, Pa. Mrs. Strong, who is a strong-minded woman and the publisher of the Erie Herald, was a sister-in-law of the Tafts.

Mrs. Taft's set at Washington. She told Mrs. Taft of her sister's suspicions regarding the detectives. Mrs. Taft told the President of the matter, and urged him to action. Then came a flock of thirty-five secret service men and post-office inspectors and Perkins and Franklin were caught in the dragnet.

To Vote at 88

PLACERVILLE, March 13.—What does a little thing like age count in politics? Nothing at all, answered Mrs. Jane E. Lapham, 88 years of age, as she took off her glasses so she could see to sign her name as she registered.

Mrs. Lapham said she was registering so she could vote for Taft. She has always taken an active interest in suffrage, is a close reader and is well posted on the general political situation of the country.

Mrs. Lapham is a tall, slender and can make a good deal of her own weight. Her husband, she uses her glasses when sewing, but often finds it more convenient to leave them off.

Nagged to Death

CHICAGO, March 13.—"We, of the jury, find that Miss Ruth Peeney of Evanston, aged 19 years, came to her death by taking poison which was administered to her by her mother."

Because of quarrels with her mother, the verdict of the coroner's jury after an inquiry into the suicide of the young Evanston girl. The mother was not present. Every one was freed from suspicion. Ruth left two notes, one to her sister Jessie, and one to the public. The first read: "Tell dad that I have done this for the good of the whole family."

The other letter read: "I hope this act on my part will enable my mother to come to see what she has caused me to do. Let her from this time on treat Dodo and Jessie like two daughters, and not like two strangers."

Woman Is Accuser

SACRAMENTO, March 13.—John Butler, a veterinarian who has practiced throughout the Sacramento valley, is under arrest here on a charge preferred by a woman with whom he has been living for the last eight years and who was supposed to be his wife. They have three children, but never were married.

Butler became infatuated with 16-year-old Henrietta Glenn of Jackson a few weeks ago and married her without telling her of his past life.

Mrs. Butler, the common law wife, had Butler arrested for failing to provide for her and the news of his marriage to the Jackson girl became known only yesterday.

HEADACHE CURES

By LILLIAN RUSSELL (Copyright, 1912, Lillian Russell.)

NO woman who indulges in headache powders of any sort can retain her good looks. And there are thousands of women, men and girls in the world today who are deliberately defying nature by taking "patent" medicines to relieve pain. And the number of sleeping and headache powders put up by druggists is only exceeded by the number of idiots who buy them.

Girls, I advise you to abhor the habit as you would a snake. It will eat into your vitals and destroy every vestige of beauty that God gave you. I have seen beautiful girls, fresh and perfect in every way, become old and hideous to look at from the continual use of drugs, which habit began with a simple headache powder.

There is an interesting case at the present time in the daily papers—a woman who begs for a cure for the drug habit contracted, she says, in the hospital by the administering of drugs to allay physical pain after an operation. This woman has asked for a cure and many answers have been published, but none of them suggest that she take herself in hand and cure herself.

One drug cannot cure the effect of another drug any more than one evil can cure another evil. The effect must turn back to the cause for a reason; the cause of any disease being cured, the effect is only left in the imagination. Therefore cure the imaginary effect by knowing that your natural state is perfection, and that there is no need of any drug to put you to sleep.

Few women have the courage to fight out a problem of that nature, as the handy narcotic can be purchased for so little and to some people the effect is rapid.

If you will notice you will see that healthy persons are stimulated or soothed much quicker by drugs than unhealthy ones. Therefore they are quicker to repudiate them.

Doctors are responsible for much in administering drugs to satisfy restless patients. But the victims themselves are most to blame. If they would try to bear just a little more pain for the time being and be patient they would get well quicker and when recovering would find their vitality responding to their wish for strength far quicker than if they had given themselves up to the narcotic, which is perhaps soothing at the time, but takes root and grows in their mind until it overpowers them and compels them to give their strength and beauty as a tribute to its power.

Remember: Health is the mother of all beauty. Have the fortitude to defy any drug that will jeopardize your health or strength.

G. S. F.—I cannot print the formula for the curling fluid on account of lack of space, but shall be glad to send it to you if you will write me again, asking for it and enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Dampen the hair with the fluid before doing it up on papers or kid curlers. The kid curlers give a pretty wave to the hair.

HOPEFUL—Housework of any kind spoils the hands unless they are protected. Rubber gloves should be worn constantly when the hands are in water and when doing lighter housework, such as sweeping or dusting, old loose fitting kid gloves should be worn. If your freckles are light they can easily be removed by lemon juice or buttermilk. With the buttermilk use it just as you would water, only using the hands instead of a wash cloth. Apply several times a day and allow it to dry.

Daring Operations

BALTIMORE, March 13.—Performing what is said to be a most unusual operation, made possible only by a recent discovery in surgery, Dr. William S. Baer yesterday transplanted the muscles of Miss Ruth Coffey of Lenox, N. C., in an effort to slay the ravages upon her system caused by infantile paralysis. The girl's atrophied muscles, which had been decaying by disease, were removed and grafted to her knee cap muscles, from which it is hoped they will absorb vitality.

Eames Is Ill

PARIS, March 13.—Mme. Emma Eames is ill in the American hospital. Her condition is not dangerous, but her physician advises her that a long rest is imperative, and for this reason she will be unable to fill any professional engagements for at least six months and possibly a year. Eames has been in poor health for some time, but has been confined to bed only for a few weeks. She became ill soon after arriving here from New York. Her husband, Senor de Gogorza, also is in Paris.

POSES ON HALL STEPS DECKED IN GILT PAINT

ST. LOUIS, March 13.—Muffled in a coat of gold paint, loin cloth and classic expression, Ernest Blengk, a theatrical performer, posed 10 minutes in imitation of bronze statues on the steps of the East St. Louis city hall while the mercury stood at the 26-degree mark.

Once he burdened himself further by adding a gilt helmet to his attire for a few moments, and another time by wearing a light toga. They soon were displaced, however, and Blengk glittered in the bright, but effective, winter sunshades.

Blengk, who says he is a sculptor from Hamburg, Germany, is appearing at an East Side theater with Frau Hanno and Belle Foak. The women also had been billed to show the spring styles in gold paint at the city hall, but couldn't reconcile themselves to a temperature so decidedly behind the season.

NO SHORT SLEEVES WINS $500 DAMAGES

WASHINGTON, Pa., March 13.—Because the injuries she sustained in the sudden starting of a train so disfigured her elbows and forearms that she will never be able to wear short-sleeved waives a jury awarded Miss Stella Reeves, a student at the California State Normal school, today $500 in her suit for damages against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

Miss Reeves had just boarded a train when the sudden start of the locomotive hurled her against a window, her arms being lacerated by broken glass.

Who wouldn't quietly steal away from the worries of life to live for a while where beauty reigns? Beauty is ennobling, uplifting, there is something fine in our search for it. Old Ponce de Leon made a mistake way down there in Florida when he sought for the fabled "Fountain of Youth." He should have come to California, where no one ever grows old, to this land of perennial beauty.

You have given us sculpture and the works of the medieval painters as standards of measurement, but there is a literary standard, too, for many of our women look straight out at us from the pages of literature.

Most of us could quickly answer anyone of these questions at our "Conundrum Party":

Who is our modern Portia, the one who teaches us always to be merciful? Who is our charming "Rosamund" whose sparkling play of wit and humor is so delightful? Who is the dear "Agnes" who has walked straight out of David Copperfield? Who is our Lady Macbeth, sombre, ponderous, whom melancholy has marked for its own? Who is the Lorna Doone of our smart set? Who is our "Kilmeny" of the wonderful eyes? Who is the "Beautiful Witch" that William Black told us about? And who is the little "Becky Sharp" who plays cards with us and walks off with the prizes?

Who is "Miss Mary, quite contrary," whom no one is ever able to please; and who is the girl with so many suitors that her friends call her "The Queen of Hearts"?

Who is the dear little girl of the younger set who might be "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm"?

Who is the "Lady of the Lake"? You will find her not far from our own lake, to be sure.

There is "My Lady Caprice," straight from Jeffrey Farnol's new book. She never knows her own mind and you can never count upon her for anything, but she is beautiful, delightful just the same.

And who is "My Lady Nicotine"? She is named from Barrie's book, and for reasons best known to ourselves. And there is "Jane Eyre," the homeliest heroine in all literature, who had what the Celtic people call "a way with her," and who ended by being the most beautiful of all the literary personages of her time.

And who is the woman of the smart set, so gorgeously gowned that she might easily be known as the Queen of Sheba? Out from the pages of literature they look at us, all the fascinating personages of our own smart set. It will not take long to guess who they are.

TO HEAR FROM THE MEN.

Dear Beauty Committee: Don't you think we might have had more letters from the men? Now here is a theme I would like to suggest: just a stanza would be a good big sermon folded up in the innocent lines:

"Never a careworn wife but shows,
In a joy suffuse her,
Something beautiful to those
Patient to peruse her.
Some one charm the world unknowns
Precious to a musser,
Happy what, ere years were foes,
Moved her mate to choose her."

Now, Mrs. Requa has taught us that in our city years are not foes. She has taught us that old Father Time is our friend. As a prominent matron said the other day: "What's the use of not being beautiful just because the years have got you?"

You can make the years your servants if you want to. We say a great deal about the gallantry of our men—about their chivalry; we compare them to the knights of old who went out on prancing chargers to fight for their lady loves. Now is the chance for our men to speak up, and to place some loved one—sweet heart, wife or mother—straight in the heart of this Beauty List.

MRS. OSCAR LONG, suggested as one of the most beautiful women in Oakland society.

Arbor Villa was specially attractive—Miss Evelyn Ellis.

As "Mrs. F. M. Smith" she is even more attractive and she ranks as one of the beautiful young matrons of our city. She is very much admired both in Shelter Island and New York.

A QUIET OBSERVER.

FROM A PATRONESS.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: Are you giving quite enough of space to the younger girls who make up the Friday Night and Junior Assembly lists? They have been taught to consider themselves the center of the universe, and it is a new experience to feel that call which is best described in the vernacular, "To go way back and sit down!" They are having the unique and unusual experience of being relegated to the background, while their mothers and their grandmothers are having a most beautiful time in the glare of the limelight.

Nevertheless, my dear TRIBUNE, youth is very beautiful. We realize how beautiful it is the farther it recedes into the past. And so I am sure you will want to place in your beauty list some of these bright young maids:

"Standing with reluctant feet,
Where the brook and river meet."
They are the happy little maids of our dancing clubs. It is just a joy to watch them, in their pretty gowns, at the dances of the winter. So pretty they are, so full of girlish enthusiasms.

Did you hear what that French count said the other day about our women? He is a real count, descended from the same family as the famous Cardinal Richelieu. If you have not heard of his famous interview, I'll quote some of it for you: "California women are the most beautiful in the world. The complexities of these women are marvelous. They should be the eighth wonder of the world. And they are very unaffected, with charm of manner and poise. They are abounding in the health that comes of outdoor life. In fact, they are the most beautiful in the world."

That is especially true of this lovely young set of girls, dancing down the house at the Friday Night and the Junior Assembly clubs, and among the very charming girls, pretty enough to be in any beauty list are: Mrs. Hall, Gertrude Adams, Dorothy Capwell, Doris Bornemann, Dorothy Taylor, Dorothy Taft, Esther Sharon, Ruth Sharon, Lilla and Phyllis Lovell, Alice Palmer, Helen Cadman, Madeline Clay, Fussy Creed, Eliza McMullin, Ernestine McNear, Hazel Layman, Priscilla Hall, Jean Scupham, Elizabeth Hogan, Janet Painter, Nellie Adams, Helen Coogan, Helen High, Helen Acker, Margaret and Helen Bassett, Gladys English.

You will find many a budding beauty happily dancing in the Junior Assembly and the Friday Night Club.

ONE OF THE PATRONESSES.

THANKS TO MRS. REQUA.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: We owe Mrs. Requa debt of gratitude for so nobly standing up for us what constitutes beauty in our friends. She has taught us to look for that which is best and noblest in them, and in finding it we are finding them beautiful. Longfellow wrote about sending out an arrow and a song. Long afterwards he found them.

"And the song, from beginning to end,
I found again in the heart of a friend."

Isn't that when we are seeing ourselves in the heart of a friend?

AN APPRECIATIVE READER.

MRS. HARRY EAST MILLER.

DEAR TRIBUNE: Mrs. Harry East Miller is a specially fine type of a woman, with Southern ancestry and of good family. Mrs. Miller is a stunning brunette, with superb coloring and with a certain independence of bearing, which is an excellent example of fine poise.

Sincerely, E. C. M.

TYPES OF STUNNING WOMEN.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: The first thing an Easterner notices is not our climate nor our flowers, but our stunning women. California is rapidly becoming the land of large women, of striking types of beauty.

The old Greeks would have gloried in them. They carry themselves superbly and they represent one of the finest types of womanhood that the Great West has evolved.

At many gatherings of the smart set are to be seen Mrs. George Gross, Mrs. J. Loran Pease, Mrs. Frank Watson, Mrs. Everett Brown, Mrs. Duncan McDuffie, Mrs. Lester Greene, Mrs. Irving Lundborg, Mrs. William Schrock, Mrs. George de Golla, Mrs. Louis Titus, Miss Matilda Brown, Miss Vivian Nicholson, Mrs. Charles Hubbard, Mrs. Cutting, Mrs. Christie Taft, Mrs. Murray Orlick, Mrs. James Kenna, Mrs. John Valentin, Mrs. Hiram Hall, Mrs. Eliza

MISS FLORENCE HENSHAW.

Mrs. Harry Chickering and Miss Florence Henshaw are two young Oakland women who have been creating a furore in Cairo in this present season. Cairo is one of the most cosmopolitan cities in the world, every type of beauty being much in evidence there. Mrs. Henshaw and her daughters have been staying at a hotel in which there are 2000 guests, and at a recent cotillion, there Mrs. Chickering and Miss Henshaw were chosen to head the german.

Mrs. Chickering resembles her mother, a fine example of blonde coloring, while Miss Henshaw, since her debut, has been regarded as one of the brunettes beauties of Oakland. An exceedingly fine portrait of her is the work of Mr. Richard Partington. Both Mrs. Chickering and her sister, Miss Henshaw, are worthy of representation on any list of beautiful young women.

RED AS A ROSE.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: We have heard a great deal in the discussion of fine coloring and sweet, happy expressions. No one more fully represents that type than Miss May Coogan, whose wonderful coloring is like the rose and whose happy expression is a joy to her friends.

FROM AN AUCTION BRIDGER.

A certain well-known actress writes that you can't be beautiful if you're an auction bridger. You get a bridge face. It's something like the frozen face of history. But that isn't true. You've got to be keen in bridge, and if you're going to keep an auction score these days you've got to be good in mathematics. If you've got an auction bridge face, it will be bright and keen and full of intelligence, and who will say that these are not attributes of beauty?

"Auction bridge" is, of course, the main amusement of the smart set, and we wouldn't like to feel that we were going about with "auction bridge" faces.

Well, the actress is all wrong, for look at the very attractive women who are among our best auction bridge players; for instance, Mrs. T. C. Coogan, Mrs. Thomas Crellin and Mrs. J. R. Burnham. All sweet and so attractive in many ways as to be able to establish claims for real "good looks."

And there is that group of women known as the Cosmos Club, all fine "auction bridgers," and you couldn't find a more interesting, up-to-date lot of women anywhere. Lillian Russell has only to come to Oakland to be convinced that auction bridgers number among themselves some beautiful types of women.

AUCTION BRIDGER.

MRS. FREDERICK STOLF.

It was an Englishman who wrote that young American women were often very beautiful because they allowed their hair to turn white so framing an extremely young face was charming, making an unusual and very fine type of beauty. Does that make you think of Mrs. Frederick Stolf?

As a type of an exceedingly handsome grandmother, as a type of beauty, I would like to propose to the name of Mrs. E. L. G. Steele. Her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Williams (Beatrice Steele), resembles her, and they look very much like sisters.

E. M. C.

MRS. CHARLES MINOR GOODALL.

Beauty Committee: Mrs. Charles Minor Goodall has always been rightly considered one of the most beautiful women on this side of the bay. She has the lines of the face that are charming, and beautiful coloring adds to its attractiveness, and a graciousness of manner is another characteristic, lending its aid to complete a very beautiful study of a delightful young matron. It is a truthful word picture that I send, and I am,

CAPT. FREEMAN DIES

BRIEF ILLNESS FATAL

CAPTAIN EUGENE MASON FREEMAN, state pilot commissioner and well-known sea-faring man, who died this morning.

State Pilot Commissioner Had Many Adventures at Sea

Captain Eugene Mason Freeman, state pilot commissioner and one of the best known sea-faring men on the coast, died at Providence hospital this morning, following an operation performed eight days ago. The dead man was seventy years of age, having been a resident of Oakland for thirty-five years.

Funeral services will be held on Friday afternoon, March 16, at 2:30 at the residence, 289 Hanover Place, under the auspices of Oakland Lodge No. 171, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, of which he was one of the oldest members. Cremation at the Oakland crematorium will follow the service, which will be attended by the family and friends.

Captain's Freeman's death came after an illness of short duration. In spite of his age he carried out his duties as pilot commissioner until only a few days before entering Providence hospital, where an operation was found necessary for stomach trouble. Dr. O. D. Hamlin was the attending physician and doctor, the weak condition of the patient his recovery seemed probable. A change for the worse developed shortly before his death, however, followed by gradual loss of consciousness and death at 7 o'clock this morning.

SON OF QUAKERS.

The dead man was a native of Provincetown, on Cape Cod, Massachusetts, where he was born on April 1, 1841. He was the son of Quakers and sea-going folk, his father having been a ship captain. At an early age the boy determined to go to sea and at twelve signed up before the mast. For the following fifteen years he cruised all over the world, first as a cabin boy and sailor and, at twenty, as a ship's master on his own account. In these years he made eight voyages around the world, venturing into all parts of the navigable world. Among the adventures of those early years were shipwreck in the China sea and other hardships.

WIFE SURVIVES HIM.

In 1885 he married in Old South church, Boston, his wife, Mrs. Amaretta F. Freeman, by whom he is survived. Three years later, in 1888, he sailed around the Horn on the vessel Black Hawk, landing in San Francisco, where he settled. He was appointed a deep water pilot which position he retained for 35 years, or until his appointment as a state pilot commissioner. The year following his arrival on the coast Freeman was joined by his wife and small daughter who came by vessel to Panama and across the isthmus, again after the family removed to Oakland where it has lived for the past 25 years.

Captain Freeman's appointment as pilot commissioner came in 1903. It was made by former Governor George C. Pardee, then the chief executive of the state.

Scores of Documents in Sugar
"Conspiracy Case" Disappear, Report Attorneys

Original Kissell Agreement Is Among Missing Papers
Sought by Government

NEW YORK, March 13.—Scores of documents by which the government hoped to prove, in a large measure, its charges in the so-called sugar trust conspiracy case, have disappeared, according to evidence adduced at the trial today. District Attorney Wise said he feared they never would be recovered.

Much documentary evidence, embracing books of the American Sugar Refining Company, from 1903 to 1909, and personal letters of its officers and directors confronted attorneys, although many of the documents called for by District Attorney Wise could not be found in the files.

Among those missing is the alleged original agreement said to have been made between the company and Gus E. Kissell, its agent, covering the loan of $1,350,000 made on December 31, 1909, to the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company, through which the American Company obtained control of the Pennsylvania Company's stock. A copy of this agreement is said to be in the hands of the government as well as a copy of the agreement between the American Sugar Refining Company and the American Beet Sugar Refining Company.

Rainy Weather Prevents Practice at Livermore; Burns and Frayne Sign Agreement

BACK AMONG THE OLD FOLKS.

BURNS AND FRAYNE SIGN FOR TWENTY-ROUND BOUT

Tuxedo Club Will Stage Lightweights on March 29; Jim Coffroth Is Seeking a Middleweight Champion

As predicted in these columns a week ago, the Tuxedo Club of San Francisco has grabbed the Frayne-Burns bout and Eddie Graney will stage the two as the top-liner to his show at Dreamland Rink on the evening of March 29th over the twenty-round route—if it goes that far. The boys will meet at 135 pounds, weigh in at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and will box for a percentage of the gate receipts. While the card is not a championship affair, the fans need have no fear but that it will prove far better than many of these so-called championship affairs if the boys just put up such another bout as they did at the West Oakland Club a few weeks back.

That night they stood toe and toe through ten rounds with neither having an advantage, but giving the fans one of the best mills ever seen on either side of the bay. It was slim and close, but the boys were in the opening round until the very finish of the tenth and that both had wanted to continue.

Reluctant to this bout the promoters had been looking upon Burns as a back number because he had lost a decision to Britton, and upon Frayne as a "never do." Both boys upset all calculations and, as we said before, gave the fans a great time of it while their bout lasted. Frankie Burns has been before the public some little time now and up to the time of his defeat at the hands of Wolcott was figured as a possibility. The fans have always contended that he had been sent to the front at too rapid a pace and after a long rest he proved this Frayne has fought some of the best men in the game and in victory. The defeat has always given an excellent account of himself.

It is a high class card and the fans on the sides of the ring will be well satisfied that the two boys will put up a scrap that will well be worth the price of admission.

Burns will take up his training quarters at Billy Shannon's next week and will have Ben Smith as chief of the training staff while Frayne will continue his work at Al White's place under the tutelage of Jack Perkins.

COFFROTH TO GIVE BELT. Promoter Jim Coffroth, who is trying to find the middleweight champion, is having a belt made to be presented to the man who is finally on top of the heap when Jim has finished with his elimination tourney of middleweights.

Next in the line will be contestants for the belt will be Frank Kinas of Pittsburg and Jack Dillon of Indianapolis, who will engage in a swiftest at Daly City on March 23, over the twenty-round route.

It is the intention then of the Shasta Club promoter to match the winner with Eddie McGuffey of Oakland and the winner of this scrap will be heralded as the champion. Still the promoters overlook

The "CURE" worse than the DISEASE

Mercury and potash will sometimes dry up or temporarily remove the outward evidences of Contagious Blood Poison and sufferers are misled into the belief that the disease has been cured. These deluded victims soon find, however, that the "cure" is worse than the disease, that not only has the virus been all the while more thoroughly saturating the blood, but the strong mineral medicine has likewise been undermining the system and breaking down the health.

The truth about Mercury and Potash is that these minerals cannot cure Contagious Blood Poison, and when the treatment is left off the smouldering infection rouses itself into the old destructive flame and every symptom of the disease returns with increased virulence. What was at first a tiny sore or pimple becomes an ulcerous place, the mouth and throat grow raw and tender, glands in the groin swell and form painful knots, brown spots appear on the skin, and frequently running sores and ulcers break out on the flesh.

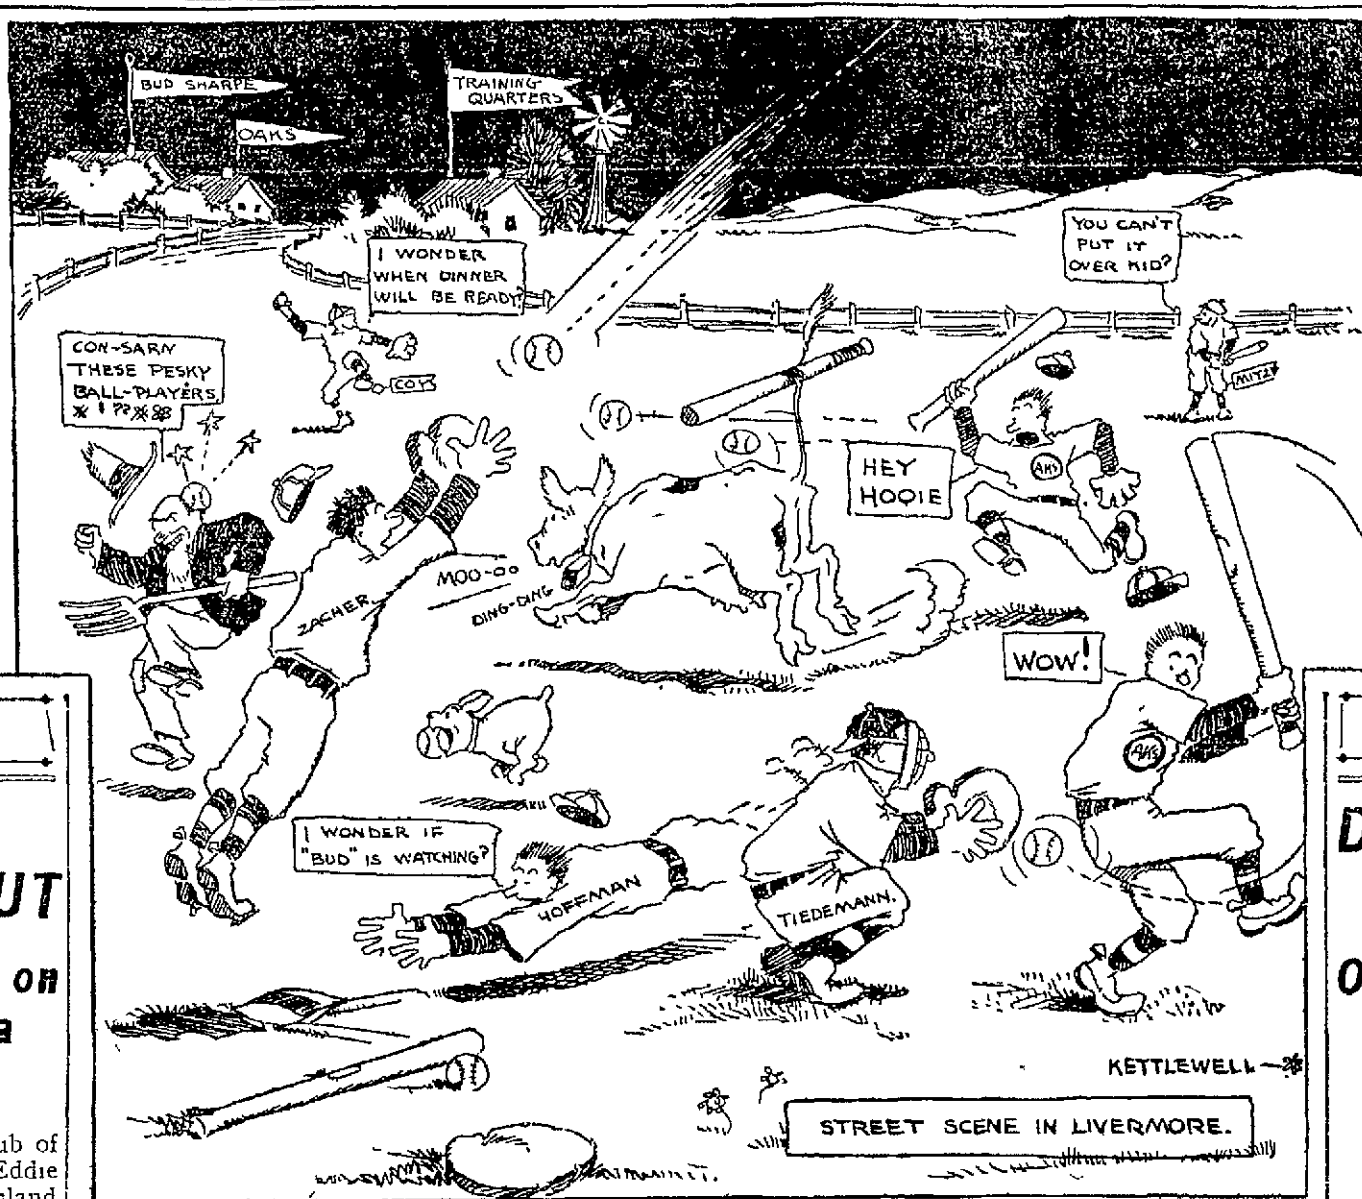

Years upon years of failure is abundant proof that the mineral treatment is not a specific for Contagious Blood Poison. Physical wrecks from the use of Mercury and Potash are all around us and their experience should be a warning to others who may be suffering with this disease.

S. S. S., a purely vegetable remedy, IS a specific for Contagious Blood Poison. It is a medicine with the meritorious record of more than forty years of cures and one which in all that time has not acted harmfully upon a single system. S. S. S. is the greatest of all cures for Contagious Blood Poison because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes right down into the circulation and removes every particle of the virus and makes a perfect cure.

S. S. S. does not contain a particle of Mercury, Potash, or any other mineral but is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks which strengthen and build up the stomach and digestive members while driving out the germs of disease.

You do not take chances when you use S. S. S., but in doing so you are giving yourself the benefit of the very best treatment for Contagious Blood Poison. There is no "come back" when S. S. S. cures but there is always a perfect restoration to health and the assurance that the blood is once more pure and clean. Home treatment book and any medical advice free to all who write and request it.

OAKS WILL TACKLE LIVERMORE TEAM NEXT SUNDAY

Local Followers of Sharpe's Hopes Will Invade the Valley Town.

Once again the fans about the bay will be given a chance to take a trip to the Livermore training camp of the Oaks next Sunday, when another excursion will be run this time over the Western Pacific. The train will start from the Third and Washington street depot at 11 a. m. and it is believed that the fans will prefer to go at this time rather than so late as last Sunday, as they did not arrive at Livermore until just before the beginning of the game on that occasion, and they found practically all the seats already occupied.

This time they will reach Livermore about 12:30 so that they will have time to look the town over and will be able to go to the grounds early enough to secure good seats. Although last Sunday's game was a good one, that of next Sunday should be much better as the boys will be in improved form and they will surely do their best to secure revenge upon Livermore for that tie score of last Sunday.

A better line can also be secured on the actual ability of the players and some ideas can be formed as to how Manager Sharpe plans to line the team up for the coming race.

The excursion is being promoted by Messrs. Bunker and Murphy who have decided to reduce the fare to $1.50, but will cover passage both ways, but does not include admission to the ball game, which will be the usual price of 25 cents.

PROMOTER DUFFY HAS FAST CARD SIGNED FOR FRIDAY

Matchmaker Neil Duffy of the Oromonde Club has signed up a corking card for next Friday night. Several new faces will greet the fans. The card in full follows:

Tommy Dillon vs Ray Temple 135 pounds (Tommy Dillon is Jack Dillon's brother who fought Jack Britton two hard draws), Ike Cohen fighting Hebrew of Salt Lake City vs Billy Weeks fighting Simon of Los Angeles, and Samie Forbes, sparring partner of Jack Dillon of Indianapolis vs George Temple, brother of Ray Temple 135 pounds, Charlie Miller, champion Pacific Coast vs Soldier Schwader, champion of army (six straight knockouts) championship Pacific Coast, 200 pounds, Willie Robinson, who has won every start vs Joe Lahey, Walter Coffey's sparring partner, 125 pounds, George Emble who best Willie Robinson vs Ed McMillan of Sacramento, 135 pounds, Jack Vuolovich, who knocked out Al White's hope, vs Battling Lew Rushing, fighting motion 130 pounds, Tommy Ryan of Sacramento vs Norman Couture of Oakland, 122 pounds.

ALL CANDIDATES FOR OLYMPIAD TO TRY OUT

Committee Rules That Past Records Will Not Count; All Must Compete.

NEW YORK, March 13.—Gwynn Henry, the Texas sprinter who won the 100 yard national championship at Pittsburg last July, has applied to the American Olympic games commission for a place on the American team. He will be unable, on account of his college work, to enter the tryouts on June 8, and he therefore asks for a special tryout in New York, a day or so before the team sails.

In replying to Henry, the committee states positively that "athletes who compete in the official tryouts will have the preference of all others, no matter what records they hold, and the man who wants to be sure of making the team should compete in the tryouts and not rely on the fact that his record in college sports will be accepted by the committee. It will be considered that the athlete who competes in the tryouts will be given the preference."

The committee states, however, that if Henry shows by his performances in New York that he is in good condition and is entitled to a place on the team, he may be selected.

For Genuine "606" CURES BLOOD POISON IN ONE TREATMENT

R. C. HOWE, M.D.

The New German Treatment is the remedy that you should demand when suffering from this loathsome condition. For years even ages doctors have been treating this cure on humanity by administering drugs and poisons. The old time method was purely empirical. It being almost entirely based upon what this or that doctor would use with success upon his patients, the treatment in many instances being more injurious than the disease itself. It is a true scientific, and has done more to relieve sufferers from "the disease" (Syphilis), than any other method. I have treated the most elaborate "606" laboratory (according to the German method), I believe, not only on the Pacific Coast but in the whole United States.

Carrying out my plan of action all through life I have been cautious regarding the future of my patients. I have been careful to keep the patient in mind, and the Atlantic has become a wall regarding its use and its power to absolutely exterminate the scourge. It is my ambition to keep ahead of the times in everything that is for the good of my patients. Accordingly I have installed the most elaborate "606" laboratory (according to the German method), I believe, not only on the Pacific Coast but in the whole United States.

It is generally known is so called as the result of the six hundred and sixth experiment made by its inventor in order to perfect his formula. It will kill the so-called spirochetes.

OAKLAND HIGH TO MEET BERKELEY ON CINDERS

Rival Prep. Schools to Compete in Athletic Events Next Saturday.

The annual Oakland-Berkeley high school dual track meet will be held next Saturday afternoon on the University of California cinder paths, weather permitting. As many stars are attending both institutions a very close result is expected. Both squads of track athletes have been training faithfully for the past two months in anticipation of the coming track season.

The local team has been coached by Everett Brown into a very high condition and will be able to put up a good fight for the many events which are to be held. The chief events are as follows: March 16, Oakland high-Berkeley high dual meet, March 22, Oakland high school-Modesto high school dual meet at Modesto, April 13, Stanford interscholastic meet at Stanford, April 26, Pacific coast interscholastic meet at Berkeley, May 12, Bay Counties Athletic league meet at Berkeley.

JUAREZ RACE MEET CLOSE UP MARCH 24TH

JUAREZ, Mexico, March 13.—It was announced officially today that the present meeting would end on March 24, making a total of 102 racing days.

Footsteps running to her best form, easily won the handicap, four furlongs, from a good field.

SAN FRANCISCO TEAM IS HOPEFUL

A fan who delves into baseball at the time returned to Oakland last night after having spent a couple of days with the Senators having gone to Sacramento to witness the two games with Saint Mary's "Patsey O'Rourke, to my mind," said the fan, "has a team that is no way better than the one that represented the capital last season. Miller who is figured on to replace Danzig, shows signs of being a first base man, but otherwise he does not compare with Babe. O'Rourke never was a second baseman or a shortstop, and he never will be, so the team isn't strengthened at the keyhole sack one bit, or at short."

Heister isn't an infielder, either, while Sheehan don't compare with Shinn at third, so one can hardly see where the team is any better in the infield than it was last season.

Baum and Fitzgerald are pitchers above the average, but as to the others they will have to show me. The same thing goes for the men behind the bat. As for the writer he will look the Senators over in a few days and tell the inn what he thinks of the Sacramento outfit. Maybe the fan who craved at the team is prejudiced and can't give anyone a look in except his own low crowd.

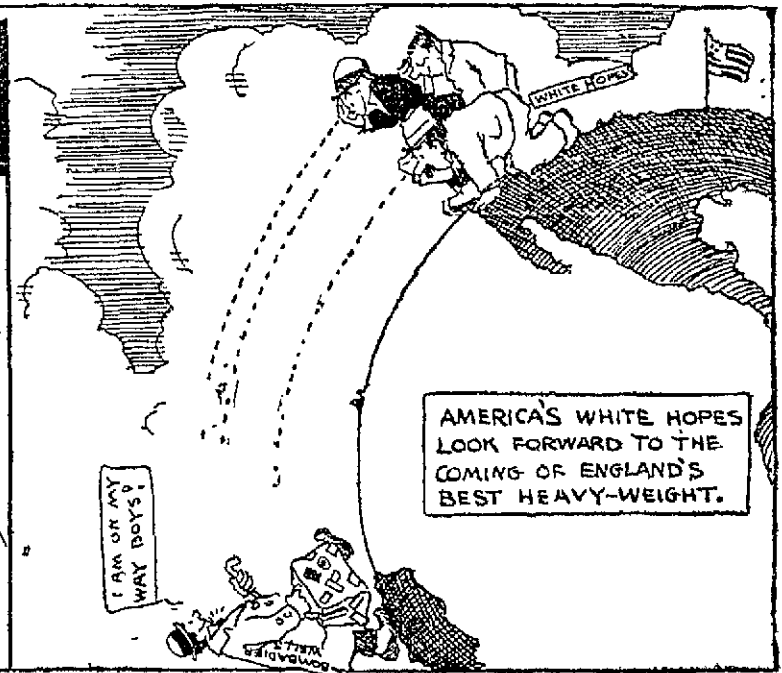

REPORTS ARE GOOD OF SEALS

Down at Paso Robles where Danny Long is mustering the Dwingkites for practice are a bunch of seals in the wool baseball fans and scribbles and they are all in picking the Seals as being a unit in 1912.

Gotch Tosses Two Men

CHICAGO, March 13.—Frank Gotch, champion wrestler, threw two men here last night. He defeated Joe Gehlbach with a hammerlock in 8:57 and Paul Hartman, with a crotch and half Neil a unit in picking the Seals as being a unit in 1912.

STRIKE UP THE BAND, HERE COMES A SAILOR.

DOWNPOUR KEEPS OAKS INDOORS AT LIVERMORE

Outside of a Workout in the Gym., Sharpe's Bunch Get Real Practice; Trainer Purinton Is Busy Man Nowadays

By BERT LOWRY.

OAKS' TRAINING-CAMP AT LIVERMORE, March 13.—It was extra innings in the Hot Stove league here yesterday. Old J. Pluv. was in his glory all day long, pouring forth a bountiful supply of the stuff that never causes you to fall off the buttermilk wagon, so everybody in the Hopes' squad had to stay indoors and look out.

At that there wasn't much kicking. Once in awhile one of those bugs that wants baseball morning, noon and night and even at midnight, gave a belch about the weather, but somebody would tell him that more rain meant more corn and more corn meant more kale for the country, so he went back to the last row and sat down.

Then, again, some of the boys were lucky in the game and the pedals and the rain gave Trainer Purinton a chance to doctor up the ailing ones. All the morning he rubbed and tugged getting out the aches and when the going got for the parade to the feed all hands were feeling in good shape. This caused Manager Bud to decide upon an indoor session—so off to the Armory—biked all hands at 2 p. m. for a couple of hours workout under the roof.

This kind of labor might do for a boxer or a ping pong player, but not for a ball player, and this afternoon all hands are piping for sunshine.

They were hopeful of going up to Oakland today and the boys who are from the University of California boys but J. Pluv. left the ball park there just as wet as it is here, so the trip is off and Oakland fans won't get a chance to see the Hopes in action until next Sunday when a second game will be played with the Livermore crabs.

SHARPE WELL PLEASED.

While the wind whistled and the rain pattered we held a talkfest, the big boss and I, and Manager Bud is well pleased with the way the Hopes are standing up. "I'm a lucky boy in many ways," here I come away out west to act as pilot for a ball team, and I have a bunch of sun in the whole outfit. I circulate among my fellows and find them about as nice a bunch as one would care to meet.

"All of them have assured me of their friendliness and every one is working as you can see for the success of the team as well as for himself. All this is very encouraging to me and I expect to start the season with as good a team, if not better, than any in the league."

"One thing is certain, we shall be trying all the time to keep in front of the procession and I am not afraid to predict that the fans of Oakland will be proud of the outfit when the 1912 season is over."

The more I size up the boys the better I like them and I will do my utmost to place a winning combination in the field.

A fan who delves into baseball at the time returned to Oakland last night after having spent a couple of days with the Senators having gone to Sacramento to witness the two games with Saint Mary's "Patsey O'Rourke, to my mind," said the fan, "has a team that is no way better than the one that represented the capital last season. HERE IS A REAL
DYSPEPSIA CURE

No Indigestion, Gas, Sourness
or Headache Five Minutes
Later

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia or out-of-order stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapensin.

If your Stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak stomachs should take a little Diapensin occasionally, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, sour risings, gas on stomach or belching of undigested food, headaches, dizziness or Sick Stomach, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Diapensin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

FOUR CHILDREN KILLED
WHEN FARMHOUSE BURNS

MITCHELL, S. D., March 13.—The farmhouse of J. C. Jacques, twelve miles northeast of this place, was burned yesterday and his four children perished. The fire was under control when the children were discovered. Jacques started to descend them, but they gave way and he fell to the floor beneath. He rushed outside and called to Mrs. Jacques to throw the children to his arms from a window. She swooned and fell to the ground. The children were overcome by smoke before they could be rescued.

SACRAMENTO, March 13.—At a big meeting in Galt, this county, when the Chamber of Commerce was organized, Alden Anderson of the Central California Traction company promised that a branch of that electric railroad will be built to Galt in the immediate future.

ZIMBALIST TO APPEAR HERE

Great Violinist Will Present an Attractive Program at Tuesday Concert.

Never before has an artist made the instantaneous and emphatic success at a first appearance that Efrem Zimbalist did when he made his debut in these parts at the symphony concert in San Francisco last Friday. He was recalled seven times and forced to play an encore after that. Ever since his wonderful playing has been the main topic of conversation in musical circles. The critics and all agree that Zimbalist is truly one of the very great geniuses and several even acclaimed him the very greatest they ever heard.

The music lovers of Oakland will have the opportunity of hearing Zimbalist at the Liberty Playhouse next Tuesday afternoon, March 19, at 3:15 o'clock, when he will play a lengthy program entirely different from his other programs in this vicinity. By special request the "Chaconne" of Bach will be one of the numbers.

The sale of seats will open tomorrow at the Liberty box office at 3 p. m. Other musical stars to visit Oakland this season will be Mme. Emma Calve, assisted by Galileo Gasparri, the tenor in operatic works, and Alessandro Bonchi, the greatest living lyric tenor.

HOTEL'S INCOME FROM
'PHONES IS ENORMOUS

ALBANY, March 13.—There is one hotel in New York that makes a clear profit of $125,000 a year on the public telephones, declared Senator Stephen J. Stillwell when fighting for the advancement of the bill prohibiting hotels from charging more than the regular rate for messages.

"It's an outrage the way the hotels hold up people and charge usually double and oftentimes triple the usual rates for messages," declared Stillwell. "Appeals have been made to the Public Service Commission, but relief has not come."

The bill will probably pass the Democratic senate, but seems doomed in the Republican Assembly.

MAN WHO PLANNED
FIRST ELEVATED DIES

NEW YORK, March 13.—Charles Thompson Harvey, who planned the first elevated railroad operated in this city and who built the Sault Ste. Marie ship canal, is dead at his home here. He was 85 years of age. For many years Harvey was one of the best known civil engineers in this city.

'T WAS ONE-SIDED INTERVIEW AND SHORT ONE AT THAT

MME. CHAMBELLAN, noted French opera singer, who is star of bill at Bell Theater.

(By LEO LEVY.)
EVER again, or at least not without a French dinner beneath our belt to provide the proper frame of mind, a man's brains being in his stomach, according to those who have lately acquired the ballot.

We interviewed Mme. Chambellan at the Bell theater yesterday. Which is to say, we started out to do it. Innocently and trustingly, we started out. In fact we started out gladly and with high hopes. And they were blasted, cruelly blasted and pronto.

Mme. Chambellan is a star. Before she came to the coast to sing with the Paris Grand Opera Company she was a Parisian favorite of the Opera Comique and the Grand Opera House. Therefore we were to acquire large chunks of fame by meeting her and talking with her and putting it all down on paper afterward.

WHAT'S THE USE.
What's the use? You build air castles and the devil knocks em down. You scrape the mortar off the bricks, pile them up neatly and start the construction over again. And when your back is turned somebody makes off with the material. You'll notice he didn't confiscate the bricks before you scraped them; not the horned gentleman. He waited patiently until you had piled the clean stuff and then he called with a truck.

Thus was it that we approached the Bell with hopes dyed rose and festooned with joy. Then the fellow in horned toilet hold of the arm that Manager Julius Cohn left free.

"We're here," we announced. There were no great and festive demonstrations of "approving" joy, but Cohn assured us he was glad.

"Has the lady been made acquainted with the fact that she is about to be interviewed?"

She had not been made aware. NEWS IS BROKEN.

"Will she not throw emotional pyrotechnics at being taken thus, unprepared?" She might.

"Then why—" "I speak English," said the manager. We knew it.

"And she—" "The devil chuckled."

"And she speaks but French." "Bang-bang, our beleaguered air castles gave way to the enemy."

But bravely we rallied our forces around us and coughing up a lump of pride that had stuck in our throat, we used it for a cannon ball and prepared to resist to the death.

"Lead on," we cried. "We'll take a chance." Cohn piloted us to the door of Mme. Chambellan's dressing room.

POSER IS SPRUNG.
"Wait," we exploded, as he prepared to knock. "How are you going to inform her who we are and what we do for a living?"

There was a poser, even for a theatrical man. He thought long and deeply. "I'll get her pianist," he finally announced with a nod of triumph in his worried voice. "He speaks French and understands English."

He got him and introduced us. His name is stuck fast somewhere in a cranny of our brain and remains in hiding.

Would he be willing to personally conduct the tour?

He would. He did.

And this is the interview, minus frills and hopes of what it was going to be. Pianist informs Madame of our mission. Madame smiles and shakes hand.

"Does Mme. Chambellan like vaudeville?" we inquired.

MESSAGE DELIVERED.
Pianist receives message and delivers same. Madame smiles and nods eagerly, therefore we infer that the singer likes vaudeville.

"Do vaudeville audiences appreciate the classics?" Pianist again, emulates a telephone. Madame smiles and nods eagerly, we are, therefore, certain that vaudeville audiences appreciate, etc.

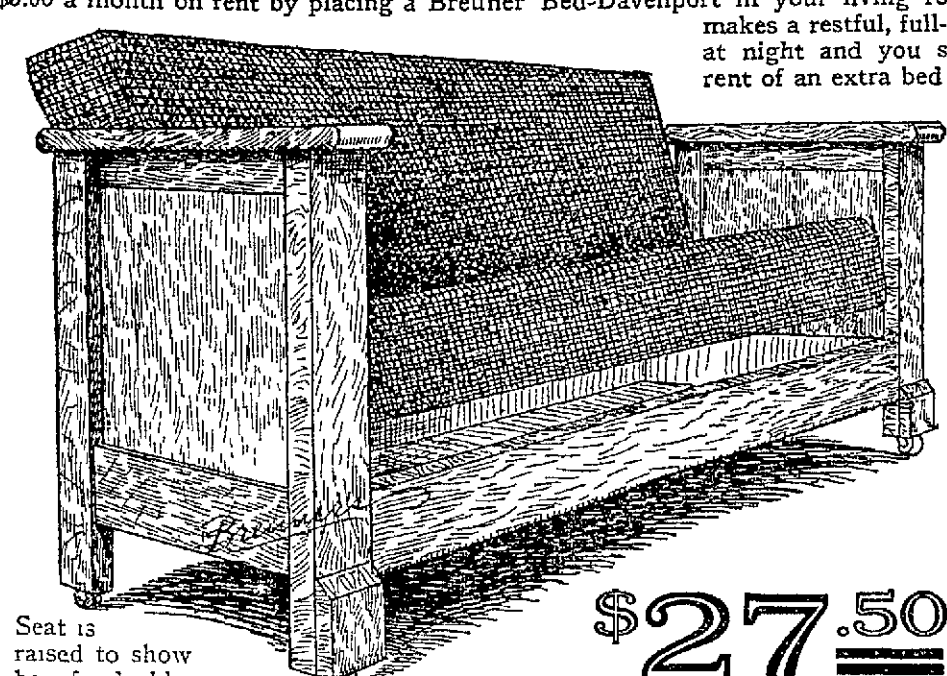

"Are we detaining Madame?" Pianist does his little stunt. Madame smiles and nods, extremely eagerly, therefore, we are detaining Madame.

We bow our way out, followed by our interpreter and the manager. We thank the pianist and shake hands with Cohn. Then we depart to collect bricks for another air castle.

And the shade of the old professor who lived to impart a limited knowledge of French into our school boy brain is wandering restlessly, tonight.

YOUR FEET COLD? OUT OF TEMPER

Here's Reason, as Given by Prof. W. D. Scott, in Chicago Lecture.

CHICAGO, March 13.—Cold feet are due to the sufferer's displeasure and not the displeasure to the cold feet, in the belief of Professor Walter Dill Scott of Northwestern University, expressed before the Chicago Executive club in the Hotel Le Salle.

"When one is displeased," said Professor Scott, "the blood leaves the feet and hands and also all the surface of the body and runs into the large blood vessels."

"This particularly affects the feet. When one is pleased the blood dilates the smaller blood vessels near the surface and the entire body feels warm."

"Displeasure causes one to lose courage and since it also produces the physical result of cold feet, we say, when one is afraid and holds back, that he has 'cold feet'."

"Even very slight pleasure increases strength and reduces exhaustion. Emotion liberates electromotive forces, puts the nervous system in a normal and healthful condition and increases muscular strength."

"The person with a bad temper has a bad digestion. This is the reason that affability and politeness are good things to cultivate in connection with table manners."

Professor Scott's subject was "Pleasure as a Means of Increasing Human Efficiency."

WIRED AORTA STANDS TEST.
NEW YORK, March 13.—Henry Grifflin, the patient in Bellevue hospital, whose aorta was reinforced by a gold wire on Monday, was reported last night to be steadily improving. Grifflin is expected to leave the hospital in a week.
